Bill To Limit Real Estate Tax Before Ohio Senate

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Legislation that would limit real estate taxation to no more than 4 per cent of a property owner's annual income was to be introduced in the Ohio Senate Nov. 14 by Sen. Paul Gillmor, R-12 Tiffin.

Gillmor said the principal beneficiaries of the measure would be farmers and the elderly, since they "generally pay a high proportion of their income in real estate taxes."

Under the bill, anyone whose property taxes exceed 4 per cent of his income would be classified an "overburdened taxpayer" and would get a reduction equal to the amount his taxes exceed the 4 per cent limit.

The legislation would retain the 10 per cent property tax rollback provided under present law.

"This approach is much more equitable than relying solely on the 10 per cent rollback," Gillmor said.

"Under the rollback," he said, "taxpayers in districts with low tax rates receive the same proportionate relief as taxpayers in districts with very high rates who pay a high proportion of their income in property taxes."

Gillmor said the average full-time farmer in Ohio pays about 20 per cent of his annual income in property taxes.

So under his bill, a farmer with an annual income of $10,000 who pays $2,000 in property taxes would get a reduction of $1,600, since the 4 per cent limit would set the most he would have to pay at $400.

Another example cited by Gillmor was a taxpayer with an income of $7,500 who owns a house valued at $20,000 and was assessed at 40 per cent valuation with a rate of 45 mills.

That property owner's tax would be $360, but under Gillmor's bill, the most he would have to pay would be $300.

The bill is similar to an amendment Gillmor submitted to the income tax bill last August. The amendment was adopted, but later was removed in the final version of the income tax bill adopted in December.

Israelis Raid Arab Bases Inside Syria

TEL AVIV (AP) — Israeli planes attacked four Arab guerrilla bases today within a seven-mile radius of Damascus, the Israeli military command announced.

The air raids came as Israel seethed with anger over West Germany's release of the three Munich Olympics terrorists freed at the demand of other Arab terrorists who hijacked a West German airliner.

A spokesman said rocket and bomb attacks near the Syrian capital were carrying out a new policy of "hitting the terrorist camps wherever they are" and were not necessarily a direct result of the release of the three terrorists.

The military command said the Israeli jets attacked about 7:45 a.m. and all planes returned safely to base.

No estimates of Arab casualties or damage were given, but the spokesman said all the targets were "terrorist" camps outside towns.

The camps were a Douma and Harana, both four miles from Damascus, Ain Sukhne, six miles from the capital, and Ain Sakheh, seven miles from the city, the command said.

The Israeli government expressed astonishment and disappointment today at West Germany's release of three Munich Olympic terrorists to Palestinian guerrillas who hijacked a German jetliner and threatened to blow it up.

The Palestinian hijackers claimed that they had mined the Lufthansa 727 jet and threatened to blow it up along with themselves and the 20 other persons on board.

"Our lives mean nothing to us," they had told the Germans.

The West German government said it acted out of consideration for the lives of the passengers and crew of the plane.

Israel's Foreign Minister Abba Eban, however, summoned the West German ambassador in Jerusalem and demanded an explanation from Bonn.

He contended the three terrorists are likely to strike again at Israelis.

"Their release is a blow to the memory and honor of our Munich martyrs," he declared.

Jet Skyjack Brings Death

Former Federal Employee Charged

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — One airline employee was killed and another wounded in the hijacking of an Eastern Airlines jetliner from Texas to Cuba. The FBI identified two of the sky pirates as a former Commerce Department executive and his teen-aged son.

The father and son named by the FBI were Charles A. Tuller Jr., 44, and Bryce M. Tuller, 19. The FBI said the two also were wanted in connection with a Virginia bank holdup in which a police officer and a bank manager were killed by bandits last week.

The FBI identified a third hijacker as William Graham, 18. The fourth man was not named. All four skyjacks remained in Cuba when the jetliner, carrying 33 passengers and a crew of seven, returned to Miami from Havana.

Air piracy warrants were issued against the Tullers and Graham, and a Houston, Tex., judge set bond early today at $1 million apiece.

A burst of shots as the airliner was commandeered at Houston early Sunday took the life of Eastern ticket agent Stan Hubbard, 34, of Humble, Tex. Wyatt S. Wilkinson Jr., a 26-year-old refueler also from Humble, was wounded by two shots in the left arm.

The 727, en route from San Antonio, Tex., to Syracuse, N.Y., with stops at Houston and Atlanta, was being readied for the resumption of its flight at Houston when the hijackers struck.

"We don't know whether the people who did the hijacking boarded here in Houston or whether they boarded at San Antonio and took action while they were on the ground in Houston," said H.C. Bataille, Eastern's Houston manager for administration and control.

"We're still not sure what happened in Houston," Eastern's information officer, Jim Ashlock, said. "The gate agent may have spotted a weapon or something, but we don't know."

Nixon Consultant To Speak Tuesday

Jaffe, a leading expert on methadone therapy, was appointed by Nixon in 1971 to coordinate all federal programs concerning drug abuse and to plan strategy in prevention, treatment, rehabilitation, training and research programs.

U.S. Curbs Naval War In Vietnam

SAIGON (AP) — The U.S. 7th Fleet has drastically curtailed its naval operations against North Vietnam and withdrawn its cruisers and destroyers well below the 20th parallel in a further de-escalation to improve the climate for cease-fire negotiations, informants said today.

All Naval bombardment of the coast above the 20th parallel has been ended, and cruiser and destroyer strikes against the rest of the North Vietnamese coast have been limited, it was learned.

Officials declined to comment today when asked if any action had been taken to deactivate the U.S. mines dropped in Haiphong Harbor. But other sources indicated no such action had been taken yet.

The 20th parallel is just above the port of Thanh Hoa, 85 miles south of Hanoi and 210 miles north of the demilitarized zone, but the farthest north U.S. ships are reported actively operating now is about 65 miles north of the DMZ.

The U.S. Command reported 120 fighter-bomber strikes in the southern panhandle of North Vietnam below the 20th parallel Sunday and said a Navy A7 was shot down 26 miles northwest of Vinh. The pilot was listed as missing.

In South Vietnam, the land-grab war continued in anticipation of a cease-fire.

The Saigon Command claimed government forces had recaptured 15 of 21 hamlets in the Saigon region seized by North Vietnamese and Viet Cong forces.

Back in Washington, Vice President Spiro T. Agnew says the United States won't be ready to sign a Vietnam peace agreement by Tuesday, but doesn't think his will prevent an agreement "in due course."

McGovern Claims Nixon 'Begged' For Viet Peace

NEW HAVEN, Conn. (AP) — Sen. George McGovern says President Nixon and Dr. Henry A. Kissinger "have literally been begging for a settlement" of the Vietnam war. "And I'm glad they have."

McGovern made the comment in Hartford Sunday night in response to a question from a television viewer who expressed concern about the senator's June statement that "begging is better than bombing" to free U.S. prisoners in Vietnam.

The Democratic nominee said he stands by that statement, adding: "I submit to you that for the last few weeks Mr. Kissinger and Mr. Nixon have literally been begging for a settlement of this war, and I'm glad they have."

On his fourth visit to Connecticut since the Democratic convention, McGovern planned to attend a brunch for labor and political leaders in New Haven today before returning to Hartford for a rally in Constitution Plaza.

Sen. Abraham A. Ribicoff, who nominated McGovern for president at both the 1968 and 1972 Democratic conventions, joined him on Sunday night's telethon, seen in Connecticut, Massachusetts and Rhode Island. Afterwards, Ribicoff told reporters McGovern has overcome most of Nixon's earlier leads in the bellwether state of Connecticut.

The Connecticut Democrat also said that, in contrast with his earlier belief that Nixon would be helped by peace developments, he is finding considerable questioning about the timing of the recent moves.

McGovern workers and aides report a similar reaction is becoming noticeable in their canvassing.

U.S. House Races Hinge On Remaps, Nixon

By WILLIAM F. ARBOGAST Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — Widespread redistricting and the outcome of the presidential election pose question marks over next week's voting to fill 435 House seats.

Veteran strategists for the two major political parties are fairly close to agreement that the Republicans will not upset enough Democrats to win control of the House.

Canadians Go To Polls; Trudeau Expected To Win

By WILLIAM L. RYAN AP Special Correspondent

TORONTO (AP) — Canadians are voting today to decide whether Pierre Elliott Trudeau continues as their prime minister and if he does, whether he will have a sizable majority in the House of Commons.

How much of the so-called "Trudeaumania" that sparked his Liberal party's 1968 sweep has worn off? How much of the Trudeau personality-plus magic remains? These are key questions as the 53-year-old Liberal standard-bearer asks an often fickle Canadian electorate for endorsement of his first four years in office.

Some political seers regard the Liberals under Trudeau as unbeatable, but he wants enough House of Commons seats to assure a comfortable majority and a sympathetic legislature.

This federal campaign fell short of igniting flames of public excitement. Trudeau's performance has been much less dazzling than in 1968 when his party won almost 60 per cent of the 264 House seats.

When Trudeau dissolved Parliament this fall and called this election, the House lineup was Liberal, 147; Conservative, 73; New Democratic Party, 25; Social Credit, 13; independent, 2; vacant, 4. Trudeau had an ample working majority.

If Trudeau's campaign lacked the fire of 1968, his Conservative rivals put on a lackluster performance under Robert L. Stanfield, whom the Tories often and glumly referred to as "not dynamic."

Polls and seers said the Liberals had a good chance of winning enough seats for another majority.

The 1968 Liberal victory permitted Trudeau to govern a full span of more than four years. Under the Canadian system, a prime minister can dissolve Parliament and call an election when he chooses, but the law says there must be a general election within every five years. The party winning the most House of Commons seats has the right to form a government and its House leader becomes the prime minister.

The McGovern aide, who asked that a private GOP poll be used, said the polling figures covered 33 states and showed the Democratic challenger pulling to within 12 points of the President, a margin considerably less than that reported by national pollsters.

Abrahams said the Nixon administration had never conducted a poll of 33 states. He declined to give precise figures on GOP soundings, but said opinion polls in the 10 biggest states showed Nixon ahead of McGovern by margins ranging from 14 to 35 points.

The McGovern aide said he does not know which states were missing from the poll the Democratic camp obtained, and knows nothing about the sampling of voters it represents.

SKLAR Planning Return To Job

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — With just a week of presidential campaigning left, Richard Sklar, Ohio manager for Sen. George McGovern, is making plans to return to his job at a steel-fabricating firm here.

He says he hasn't given any thought to joining the McGovern presidential staff should the Democrat from South Dakota be elected.

"Most of us involved in this campaign are not on any ego trips," said Sklar, a vice president of Allied Steel and Tractor Products, Inc., and a veteran behind-the-scenes campaign worker.

Trains Collide On Chicago's South Side

CHICAGO (AP) — Thirty-four persons were killed today in a rear-end crash of two commuter trains on Chicago's South Side during the morning rush-hour.

Hospitals reported treating more than 200 persons for injuries.

The crash occurred while the two Illinois Central Gulf Railroad trains were near a platform station on the city's South Side, less than 10 minutes from the main downtown terminal.

A passenger on the train that initiated the collision said riders were given about 20 seconds' warning. "Everybody screamed and there was a pile-up of people," she said.

Fire and police rescue crews rushed to the crash site, and as they worked with steel bars and torches to free passengers from the wreckage, screams of those trapped filled the air.

H.G. Mullins, superintendent for suburban service of IC Gulf, said the lead train apparently ran past the station platform and was attempting to back up when the second train struck it.

The railroad transports about 35,000 commuters daily between the city and suburbs to the south.

GOP Poll 'Leak' Said Fictitious

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. George McGovern's campaign strategists have reported receiving encouraging secret public-opinion polls leaked by a Republican defector inside President Nixon's political organization.

While a McGovern campaign aide said a private GOP poll showed the Democratic nominee gaining substantial ground, a spokesman for the Committee for the Re-election of the President termed it "bunk."

Albert E. Abrahams, spokesman for the Nixon campaign committee, said there was no such poll.

The McGovern aide, who asked that a private GOP poll be used, said the polling figures covered 33 states and showed the Democratic challenger pulling to within 12 points of the President, a margin considerably less than that reported by national pollsters.

Abrahams said the Nixon administration had never conducted a poll of 33 states. He declined to give precise figures on GOP soundings, but said opinion polls in the 10 biggest states showed Nixon ahead of McGovern by margins ranging from 14 to 35 points.

Computerized Mine Monitors Being Installed

MORGANTOWN, W. Va. (AP) — A research team from West Virginia University is installing a computerized system of monitoring conditions within coal mines at Eastern Associated Coal Corp.'s Federal No. 2 mine at Fairview near here.

The system is designed to constantly monitor a mine's concentrations of methane, oxygen and carbon monoxide, air flow and pressure changes, and the temperature and relative humidity within the shafts.

"Recent fires and explosions in coal mines have focused national attention on the need for new technology to prevent such disasters," says project head Dr. Melvin D. Aldridge. "We think that our new electronic monitoring system will help do this."

A U.S. Bureau of Mines grant funds the project.

The McGovern aide said he does not know which states were missing from the poll the Democratic camp obtained, and knows nothing about the sampling of voters it represents.

Sklar Planning Return To Job

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — With just a week of presidential campaigning left, Richard Sklar, Ohio manager for Sen. George McGovern, is making plans to return to his job at a steel-fabricating firm here.

He says he hasn't given any thought to joining the McGovern presidential staff should the Democrat from South Dakota be elected.

"Most of us involved in this campaign are not on any ego trips," said Sklar, a vice president of Allied Steel and Tractor Products, Inc., and a veteran behind-the-scenes campaign worker.

CIRCLEVILLE scored a victory, and not on any athletic field. The school's In the Know team consisting of Mike Cairns, Tom Hamilton, Dean Gulick and Elizabeth Schollenberger outwitted its Gahanna Lincoln competitor in a preliminary contest on Channel 10's In the Know game.

The students' performance on the quick-answer show was aired on television Sunday evening, proving them a 185 to 135 victor over the Gahanna team. The CHS squad will be pitted against a new rival later this year for a right to enter the finals of the game, seeking the championship.

The National Transportation Safety Board in Washington sent specialists to investigate on the basis of reports that the location of the crash was protected by automatic signals.

The lead train carried four new double-decker cars with each car's capacity about 155 persons, a railroad spokesman said. The rear train carried older cars, each having a capacity of about 85.

The spokesman said the cars were filled because of the rush hour. Barbara Kukulski, a passenger in the lead car, said the rear double-decker car "just collapsed like tinfoil" on impact. "There was blood all over the place."

A call for blood went out to the Chicago area to help treat the injured.

Film Tarzan Tangles With Tiger

MIAMI (AP) — Movie Tarzan Steve Hawkes was forced into a live performance when his 200-pound Bengal tiger started to maul a little boy on a bicycle during an animal show.

"She (the tiger) was biting everything to get loose. She bit the boy and also bit me," said Hawkes, who was holding the 16-month-old animal with a chain when young Dennis Churchill accidentally bumped into it with his two-wheeler on Sunday.

Dennis, 9, was in fair condition at North Miami Hospital after undergoing surgery for lacerations on his neck and back. Hawkes was treated at the hospital for a wound on his leg and released.

The 30-year-old actor said he had taken his pet tiger, Dallah, and a lion to Miami's sixth annual "Blessing of the Animals," sponsored by the Miami chapter of Friends of Animals, Inc.

The event is held each year in Miami's Griffing Park. Pet owners bring their animals there to be blessed by clergyman.

"It was a freak accident," said Hawkes. "The tiger's tail and the boy's bicycle got tangled together."

"The chain was choking her and she tried to break loose. There was no way I could have freed her immediately."

Push Tax Retention

OXFORD, Ohio (AP) — Survival of higher education in Ohio is at stake in the upcoming referendum on the state's income tax, according to a state education official.

Joseph G. Newlin, director of higher education in the Ohio Association of Higher Education, a department of the Ohio Education Association, made the statement to a weekend meeting of students at Miami University.

"Approval of Issue 2 (would mean elimination of the tax and) would cut into state support of our colleges and universities so heavily that your tuition almost certainly would be doubled immediately," Newlin told the students.

"But it also would mean your parents would be hit by new school support levies in their home districts," he said, "and that the sales tax would be increased by half and that other new taxes would be levied."

The state's citizens will have an opportunity Nov. 7 to decide whether to retain the personal income tax which Newlin supports.

See Westinghouse Strike Threat Eased

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The immediate threat of a strike at the Westinghouse plant here reportedly has eased as a result of talks between company officials and representatives of the International Union of Electrical Workers.

Union members at the plant authorized a strike two weeks ago, but since then negotiators have resolved a number of differences between the two sides, and more talks are scheduled.

1973 legislature, most observers believe it will not be necessary to call the lame duck lawmakers back after the election.

On the other hand, if the tax is repealed, House Speaker Charles Kurfess says a determination will have to be made as to whether the state could fall quickly into a financial bind.

Or if Democrats should win one or both houses of the legislature, the Republican leadership might want to call the current body back to act on a few measures while it still is in the driver's seat.

Kurfess merely says "we haven't decided yet, we're still thinking about what we will do." He would add only that "the members will be given ample notice."

The House speaker won't make any predictions about the ramifications of tax repeal, but says he is "not convinced" that a crisis would be imminent.

In any case, he said the legislature stands ready to act yet this year "if necessary." For one thing, he says he doesn't believe the lawmakers would let schools close.

Various groups campaigning to keep the income tax have said as many as a third of Ohio's public schools could be threatened with shutdown if repeal is approved.

Repeal backers, however, deny this would happen, contending that normal growth would permit continued spending at current levels.

Both sides are armed with figures and projections they claim prove their respective points.

The plan had been for the current legislature to come back to the capitol in mid-November to act on a number of matters left over from last summer, including a House-passed bill to revise the state's criminal code.

Senate Judiciary Chairman Max Dennis, R-10 Wilmington, said he was hopeful the non-partisan measure will not have to wait until next year. He pointed out that the voluminous bill has been several years in the making.

Gorilla Suits Most Popular Among Halloween Costumes

CHICAGO (AP) — "It's always the same, gorilla-gorilla. We were out of gorilla suits the second week in October."

Marcella Hentschel's comment means Chicago area residents are going to find a lot of hairy chest-thumpers outside their doors and at their parties Halloween night.

Draculas and witches — pretty ones this year — also can be expected.

Gorillas, Dracula and the witches with nose jobs have replaced clowns and the Roaring '20s as the most popular roles for the well-dressed Halloween goblins, say costume rental proprietors here.

"What the fascination is about gorilla suits, I just don't know," said Ed Roman, manager of the House of Roman on the South Side.

At Marcella's Costumes & Party Supplies and the Broadway Costume House, Dracula rates No. 2.

In suburban Berwyn, Claire Powell, owner of the Powell Academy of Theatre Arts, said, "I hope I never see another gorilla costume. And Dracula, for that matter."

Miss Powell said the mainstay of her business, as in previous years, however, is devils and witches, now being made glamorous instead of ugly.

As in high fashion, Halloween fashions change from year to year.

"Last year it was clowns for some reason, but that's not true this year," said Miss Powell. "Roaring '20s costumes were popular, too, but that was last year."

This year, said Mrs. Hentschel, any and all varieties of animals are riding the crest of the gorillas' popularity.

All her animals — polar bears, brown bears, horses, donkeys, wolves and tigers — have been rented out. The only ones left are two mice.

South Vietnam's foreign minister, Tran Van Lam, said today his government won't sign until North Vietnam withdraws its troops from the South and until there is agreement on the exact role of a proposed National Council of Reconciliation and Concord which is supposed to maintain a cease fire and supervise elections.

A tentative peace agreement to end the long war was worked out in Paris in negotiations between presidential adviser Henry A. Kissinger and North Vietnamese envoys. North Vietnam is demanding that it be signed in Paris on Tuesday, claiming the United States earlier agreed on that date.

The proposed agreement does not provide for withdrawal of North Vietnamese troops from the South, although U.S. forces would be withdrawn within 60 days after the agreement is signed. War prisoners in Indochina would be released in the same 60-day period.

Thieves Strike Brooks-Yates School Sunday

Thieves forced a combination lock on a coal chute leading to the coal room to gain access to Brook-Yates School, Route 2, Circleville, Saturday night or Sunday morning and stole $223 worth of merchandise.

According to the report at the Pickaway County Sheriff's Department, the culprit entered every room in the school and all closets were in disarray.

An instamatic camera valued at $35, a color camera valued at $60 and a cassette tape recorder valued at $50 were taken from the office of Lemar Clevenger.

A stereo record player, valued at $75, was taken from an adjacent room and $3 in change and a bottle of pop were taken from a soft drink machine.

Police Check Two Thefts

Two thefts, a case of vandalism and the recovery of a stolen car kept city police busy over the weekend.

Greg Bloomfield, 1070 Lyndon Lane, reported the theft of a tape player and eight tapes, valued at $98, from his car while it was parked in front of his house late Friday or early Saturday.

Jack Whately, 515 Greenacre Court, notified police that a "Jack-O-Lantern" had been stolen from his yard light sometime Saturday night.

Rev. John Demint, 411 E. Mound St., reported a window had been broken in his car early Sunday morning while it was parked in front of his residence.

Police recovered a stolen car 2:30 p.m. Saturday at the rear of Stonerck's Appliance store. The auto, stolen in Westerville, was abandoned sometime Friday.

Business Briefs

Long hours of studying basic gemology and successfully completing a comprehensive written examination on the science of identifying and evaluating diamonds and other gem stones has qualified William R. McClellan, of L. M. Butch Co., 155 W. Main St., to become a registered jeweler, a title of merit awarded by the American Gem Society, it was announced today.

Frank Bromberg Jr., president of the international society of jewelers, in making the announcement said, "McClellan has qualified as a registered jeweler through his personal desire to increase his knowledge of gemology, and the store's method of doing business which coincides with the principles set down by the Federal Trade Commission, the Better Business Bureau, and the business ethics of the Society."

In receiving this title, the firm shall continue to enjoy the privilege of being known as a registered jeweler which is awarded only to jewelry stores of proven integrity throughout the United States and Canada.

Gorilla Suits Most Popular Among Halloween Costumes

CHICAGO (AP)—"It's always the same, gorilla-gorilla. We were out of gorilla suits the second week in October."

Marcella Hentschel's comment means Chicago area residents are going to find a lot of hairy chest-thumpers outside their doors and at their parties Halloween night.

Draculas and witches — pretty ones this year — also can be expected.

Gorillas, Dracula and the witches with nose jobs have replaced clowns and the Roaring '20s as the most popular roles for the well-dressed Halloween goblin, say costume rental proprietors here.

"What the fascination is about gorilla suits, I just don't know," said Ed Roman, manager of the House of Roman on the South Side.

At Marcella's Costumes & Party Supplies and the Broadway Costume House, Dracula rates No. 2.

In suburban Berwyn, Claire Powell, owner of the Powell Academy of Theatre Arts, said, "I hope I never see another gorilla costume. And Dracula, for that matter."

Miss Powell said the mainstay of her business, as in previous years, however, is devils and witches, now being made glamorous instead of ugly.

As in high fashion, Halloween fashions change from year to year.

"Last year it was clowns for some reason, but that's not true this year," said Miss Powell. "Roaring '20s costumes were popular, too, but that was last year."

This year, said Mrs. Hentschel, any and all varieties of animals are riding the crest of the gorillas' popularity.

All her animals — polar bears, brown bears, horses, donkeys, wolves and tigers — have been rented out. The only ones left are two mice.

the principal parts of the agreement," Agnew said Sunday. However, he added there "are just a few matters to be made 'crystal clear' between the parties before it can be made final."

South Vietnam's foreign minister, Tran Van Lam, said today his government won't sign until North Vietnam withdraws its troops from the South and until there is agreement on the exact role of a proposed National Council of Reconciliation and Concord which is supposed to maintain a cease fire and supervise elections.

A tentative peace agreement to end the long war was worked out in Paris in negotiations between presidential adviser Henry A. Kissinger and North Vietnamese envoys. North Vietnam is demanding that it be signed in Paris on Tuesday, claiming the United States earlier agreed on that date.

The proposed agreement does not provide for withdrawal of North Vietnamese troops from the South, although U.S. forces would be withdrawn within 60 days after the agreement is signed. War prisoners in Indochina would be released in the same 60-day period.

NEW YORK (AP) — The "Today" show on NBC blew a golden opportunity last week to get in some timely licks keyed to the increasing signs of peace in Vietnam. But the blow actually was for something rare in television news—restraint.

"Today" had planned to air a special two-hour Thursday edition centering on the administration's effort to free the 425 American prisoners the Pentagon says North Vietnam is holding.

Instead, Stuart Shulberg, the show's executive producer, postponed the POW program a day before its scheduled broadcast.

"It just struck us that this was a very inappropriate day to be stumbling around in an area that obviously was becoming a subject of intensive negotiations," he said.

"None of us want to upset any possibilities of the governments reaching a settlement."

And, he added shortly after the regular "Today" show finished Thursday, going ahead with the POW program would have been "either mischief making or idiocy because we would be into areas that might be academic tonight."

Three hours after he spoke, Presidential aide Henry Kissinger told Washington newsmen the U.S. and North Vietnam have agreed on most major provisions of a settlement of the Vietnam war and that "peace is at hand."

The U.S. POWs, according to a Hanoi broadcast, could be freed within 60 days after a negotiated settlement of the war is signed.

The "Today" POW program had as scheduled guests spokesmen for various peace groups, a POW family organization, and a Pentagon spokesman, Maj. Gen. Daniel "Chappie" James, a veteran of the air war over North Vietnam.

The show also planned to examine the history of prisoners of war, the Geneva Convention articles concerning POWs and whether those articles had been violated by Hanoi.

The show as planned may never go on. Shulberg said that if an agreement is reached on the release of the POWs, another show with a more hopeful content will be in the works.

It will concern, he said, a discussion of Pentagon plans to rehabilitate the POWs and "just talk more precisely about how they're going to be handled when they arrive home."

Heavy Snow Hits West

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Snow, accompanied by sub-freezing temperatures, piled up in excess of 4 inches today from northwestern Minnesota to the Texas Panhandle as an early winter storm hit the northern Plains and the Rockies.

New Mexico also got 4 inches while Lander, Wyo., was walloped with 8 inches and Lamar, Wyo., had 5.

Scattered showers and thunderstorms touched eastern Maine, and the south from Alabama to southwestern Texas and southern Florida.

Temperatures across the South were mainly in the mid to upper 80s with a few readings in the 90s. Alice, Tex., reported 93 degrees.

Temperatures before dawn ranged from 3 at Helena, Mont., to 79 at Corpus Christi Naval Air Station, Tex.

Columbus City Employee Faces Theft Charges

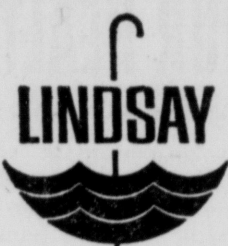

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Dean Wheatcraft, 35, a legal aide in the city attorney's office, was to be arraigned today on charges he embezzled $60,000 in city funds.

City Atty. James Hughes said Wheatcraft, a nine-year employee in Hughes' land acquisition office, processed phony vouchers on four occasions for real estate purchases in June, July and twice this month and put the money in eight bank accounts he held under assumed names.

The transactions came to light after a bank teller told officials of the large deposits. Hughes said much of the money had been recovered.

Following disclosure of the shortage, Hughes said an audit will be undertaken in his office to ascertain that there are no other discrepancies.

Dear Abby: By Abigail Van Buren

A Wonderful Lover — But A Lousy Loser

DEAR ABBY: I am a 33-year-old wife and mother. I've always been a good tennis player. My husband tries hard, but he lacks coordination.

Whenever we've played tennis with friends, I've considered his pride and have never beaten him in a singles game before a crowd, for which he's been grateful.

For some strange reason, I recently decided to show him up, and beat him unmercifully before our friends. I don't know why, but I did it, knowing full well what I was doing to his pride.

Since then, nothing has been the same between us. No cross words were spoken, but we both know that I humiliated him intentionally, and he has not forgiven me for it. It's so serious that he hasn't made love to me in two months.

I do love him, Abby. He's kind and attractive, and a woman couldn't want a better husband and father. Besides that, he's a wonderful lover, and I need a lot of love.

Now I am furious with myself. Should I apologize? I'm afraid to even mention that tennis game. How do I get things back to normal?

UPSTATE WIFE

DEAR WIFE: Bring up the incident that's been gnawing at both of you, talk it out, and clear the air. Shame on you for intentionally humiliating him, but shame on him for having allowed you to lose to him in order to salvage his pride. He may be a wonderful lover, but he's a lousy loser.

DEAR ABBY: I need an answer soon. My 18-year-old daughter still wets the bed. She is very pretty and just announced her engagement to one of the finest young men in the community.

No one would ever suspect she has this problem. We have tried everything. Years ago the doctor said there was nothing physically wrong with her and she would outgrow it, but she hasn't. Is there anything we can do to get her over this in a hurry, or is it hopeless? She is planning a December wedding and she's afraid to get married.

DESPERATE MOTHER

DEAR MOTHER: She should visit the doctor again for a complete examination. If she's physically sound, her problem could be emotional — and it's not hopeless. (P.S. She should tell her fiancé about her problem. He probably won't believe her, but at least he can't say he wasn't warned.)

DEAR ABBY: When we planned our daughter's wedding we decided not to have any children at the reception. Then we went to the printer to have the invitations printed and asked him if we should mention anything about "no children" at the reception. He said, "No. Just address the invitation to Mr. and Mrs. and that will let them know the children are not included."

Now we are getting back cards from people accepting our invitation to the wedding reception and advising us that FOUR people are coming! We call them up and ask who the "four" are, and they tell us they are bringing their two children.

Abby, we love children, but not at the wedding reception. Please help us!

BRIDE'S MOM

DEAR MOM: The printer was correct. All you can do is to tell those who advise you that they are bringing their children that you are sorry, but you have not planned on children attending the wedding reception, and hopefully they will get the message and a sitter!

CONFIDENTIAL TO "GETTING VIBES": Forget it. A ring on her finger means she's engaged. If her "vibes" match your "vibes" as you seem to think-tell her that AFTER she sheds the engagement ring you'll be glad to take her out.

Mariner 9 Eye Is 'Turned Off'

PASADENA, Calif. (AP) — The Mariner 9 spacecraft may stay in orbit around Mars for another 100 years, but scientists say its photograph-taking days are over after sending back thousands of pictures that will allow the entire planet to be mapped.

Officials at the Jet Propulsion Laboratory, which controlled the mission, said Friday Mariner's radio transmitter had been shut off because gas used to stabilize the craft ran out, preventing controllers from aiming its antenna toward earth for quality pictures.

Harassing Congressmen

As soon as election returns become official, an army of pressure group mouthpieces will descend upon congressmen, new and old, to get in on the ground floor in attempting to win support for their pet projects. Few, if any, of these will be recommendations that would not require appropriations from the new Congress if enacted.

It has always been thus, and many a new congressman is amazed when he finds what various groups expect of him, although many may not have supported him in the election. Some who were so naive as to anticipate a rash of recommendations for good government, tax reduction, etc., say what they really went through turned their stomachs.

But there are more pressure groups with headquarters in Washington than ever and goals of many of them strive for should turn voters' stomachs. Obviously, they meet with some measure of success or they wouldn't all be in business.

Some, of course, are nothing but rackets, with those promoting them making an easy living while suckers provide the money and look for benefits to flow from the U.S. Treasury which never materialize. Everyone is familiar with the types who are dredged up into these "movements" and who actually donate their time in attempts to entice more of the weak-minded to follow their example.

Most old congressmen are hardboiled and don't fall for the pressure rackets but a few think these can pay off in votes and sell out. It is the newly elected members who should be warned what to expect.

Record Price

When an Atlanta, Ga., coin dealer recently paid $100,000 for a 1913 U.S. nickel, amateur coin collectors started scrutinizing their change more assiduously than ever. But they won't find any.

Only a few coins of this date are known to be in existence and they are all in rare coin collections. But the price paid for this coin shows anew that there is no limit to what genuine and rare antiques can become worth when collectors seek to own them.

A Texas coin dealer for years before World War II offered $50 for a 1913 nickel — thought to be a crazy price at the time — but never was offered any. He would be amazed to learn what one is worth today. He would probably conclude that rare coins are only for millionaires.

Jewish Vote Turns To Nixon

By JOHN CHAMBERLAIN

George McGovern has been working overtime to win back some of the Jewish vote that has threatened to defect from the Democratic Party. Nevertheless the Jewish intellectuals who write for such magazines as Commentary and Ideas in New York City remain wary. A Commentary contributor, Milton Himmelfarb, notes that "the Arabists in the National Council of Churches were rapturous about McGovern's nomination," partly because one of McGovern's young campaign captains had signed his name to anti-Israel newspaper ads. It is not, however, merely a matter of the company that George McGovern keeps. The Jewish intellectuals are willing to concede that the Senator's heart may be in the right place, but they are made totally distrustful of his innocence.

The autumn special elections supplement of Ideas, A Journal of Contemporary Jewish Thought, bears down upon this innocence with particular vehemence. Listen to Rabbi Seymour Siegel, who says he is about to vote for the Presidential nominee of the Republican Party for the first time in his life. Rabbi Siegel shakes his head in wonder at McGovern's suggestion that planes should be furnished to Israel "on condition that they would not be able to fly over Arab territory." The stipulation, says Siegel, is ludicrous, for Israel is "such a small country that if a plane could not fly beyond its borders it would immediately have to begin to land as soon as it took off."

Max Geltman, the author of a number of books on contemporary Jewish life, finds it funny that McGovern should tote Mayor Lindsay's "borrowed yarmulke to synagogues in the cities and to bar mitzvahs in the suburbs" and order a glass of milk with a kosher frankfurter. But McGovern's "close connection with Senator J. William Fulbright," who is described in Ideas as "the most influential pro-Arab voice in Congress," does not seem funny to Mr. Geltman at all. McGovern has said that Fulbright would make "a fine Secretary of State," and this scares Mr. Geltman almost as much as the prospect of seeing Jane Fonda in the Cabinet.

Dr. Jacob Neusner, professor of Religious Studies and director of the Graduate Program in History of Judaism at Brown University, tells the editors of Ideas that his mother and wife thought him crazy when, in 1970, he failed to vote the Democratic ticket. But this year the Neusner family is going for Nixon. McGovern's ideas about quotas sparked the Neusner family apostasy. "We Jews," says Dr. Neusner, "have had enough of quotas. We know that regardless of how noble they are made to sound, they are always — always — exclusionary."

that would compel him to favor a total welfare state. He doubts that it is the business of the Federal Government to dictate to parents "where their children are to be educated, regardless of distances and inconveniences involved." Finding nothing in the Torah that would justify quota systems of busing, Rabbi Petuchowski has told the editors of Ideas that he is voting the Nixon-Agnew ticket and is "happy in the knowledge that, in this choice, I shall not be alone."

The Editor-in-Chief of Ideas, Michael S. Kogan, thinks McGovern is "an unimaginative and frivolous man" who has provided some almost "laughable" solutions to contemporary problems. "Clearly," says Kogan, "the Senator has not the least comprehension of the intricacies of international relations. His pledge to withdraw the bulk of our troops from Europe would make a shambles of the painstakingly constructed China-Russia-United States balance."

It wasn't so many years ago that the New York Jewish intellectual world leaned predominantly to the Left. But it was never "New Left." This year, appalled at the movement of young radicals into the isolationist camp, Jewish writers are reacting strongly against New Left trends. This may not carry a majority of the Jewish vote to Nixon, but Jews have always been more respectful than most people toward their intellectuals. The Commentary and Ideas intellectuals will have an effect that might, conceivably, be the margin that throws New York State to the Republicans.

TUESDAY'S HOROSCOPE

GENERAL TENDENCIES: A day to attend to those separate details and the odds and ends that must be done before you can have perfection in your daily dealings. Look at your diet and see if you are eating wisely. This is a fine day and evening for cleaning up your surroundings so they sparkle.

ARIES (Mar. 21 to Apr. 19) You can get an early start and easily handle those important tasks ahead of you, whether at home or in business. Don't relegate correspondence to others. Efficiency is the keynote now.

TAURUS (Apr. 20 to May 20) Be sure to handle well those routine jobs that are important to your livelihood. Do something about an obesity problem you may have. Show more initiative. Your creativity is high now.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 21) Although you may have pressing outside activities, take time to think out how to improve conditions at home. Remove any stumbling blocks to harmony. Make future plans with kin.

MOON CHILDREN (June 22 to July 21) Handle those duties that will gain you the approval of higher-ups and co-workers. Talk over business matters with an expert and then strive to become more effective. Relax tonight.

LEO (July 22 to Aug. 21) Study your home surroundings and see what can be done to have more comfort and efficiency there. Try to figure out how to cut down on expenses. Evening is ideal for entertaining friends.

VIRGO (Aug. 22 to Sept. 22) Plan a new course of action for the days ahead that will insure your completing whatever you start and with fine results. Philanthropic work adds to prestige. Stay within your budget.

LIBRA (Sept. 23 to Oct. 22) Although you like being at home with kin, this is a good day to go out socially and make new contacts that are vital to your welfare. Meet important personalities and obtain new ideas.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21) You have some subconscious aims and desires that need action to make them a reality, so stop just dreaming about them. Show devotion to those you like. Avoid one who is a troublemaker.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21) You have many duties to perform in business activities, so get busy early and get your points across wisely. Go to higher-ups for their support regarding a civic matter.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20) You are inspired as to how to make greater progress, so carry through without further procrastination. You can benefit from the ideas of a new friend. Show your appreciation.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19) Put a new system in operation that will help you to live a more streamlined lifestyle. Show a fine spirit of cooperation with mate and come to a fine understanding. Be poised.

PISCES (Feb. 20 to Mar. 20) Take care of those tasks that will pave the way to greater understanding with associates. Any civic work should be done conscientiously. Await a better day, if necessary. Avoid an argument.

IF YOUR CHILD IS BORN TODAY... he or she will be one of those delightful young people with a manner that will be most popular with others because of a desire to be of help to others and to cooperate with them in their ventures.

Mussolini March On Rome Of 50 Years Ago Recalled

ROME (AP) — Fifty years after Mussolini's "March on Rome" brought Fascism to Italy, extremists are again trying to exploit labor and social unrest. But unlike 1922, leftists as well as rightists are in the forefront of agitation and terrorism.

On Oct. 28, 1922, armed, black-shirted Fascists and gray-shirted Nationalists marched 26,000-strong into Rome and took up strategic positions in the city. They met no resistance.

On Oct. 30, King Victor Emmanuel III named Benito Mussolini prime minister.

The move, popular at the time, brought Fascism to Italy and 18 years later plunged the country into a world war on the side of Nazi Germany.

Many Italians see parallels in present day Italy to the conditions of the 1920s.

The bloom is off "Il Boom," the economic miracle of the 1960s that established Italy as an industrial power. Unemployment is currently estimated at 7 per cent of the labor force, about double what it was two years ago.

Unemployment is highest in the underdeveloped south, where thousands are forced to migrate to the industrial north. Housing and schools in the northern cities are often inadequate.

Meanwhile, workers demanding a bigger piece of the diminishing industrial pie have staged repeated strikes across the country.

Economists estimate that Italian industry had a net loss equivalent to $80 million last year as a result of strikes, loss of business confidence and a decline in investments.

A series of 34 shaky coalition governments since the war has whittled away public confidence in the ability of the leaders to get anything done.

Long-Time Dirigible Pilot Wants Rebirth Of Airships

MIAMI (AP) — As a member of a select society of dirigible pilots, Capt. Frank Hogan would like to bring back the blimp so people can fly low and slow and rediscover America.

"For the last 10 years, speed, speed, speed has been the thing," says Hogan, the pilot of a blimp named Mayflower. "People are getting away from that."

At the age of 50, Hogan has spent the past two decades guiding the big buzzing balloons through the nation's skies. He is one of 20 dirigible pilots flying for Goodyear Inc., which operates four of the five blimps now operating in the world.

He hopes for the day of the "superblimp," a giant ship carrying 300 people instead of six passengers and a pilot, which would slowly toll across the American continent at 40 or 50 miles an hour.

Passengers could relax in luxurious lounges, "watching the jack rabbits" bouncing along the prairies as he now does on promotional trips between visits to various cities.

"I think I could sell a lot of trips across the country," Hogan said. "Now, all a person sees when he goes from one city to another is two airports and a motel."

The former World War II bomber pilot said his visions are mostly wishful. Most people still think of the 1937 Hindenburg disaster at Lakehurst, N. J., when they think of blimps, he said.

Modern blimps are filled with nonflammable helium in contrast to the volatile hydrogen gas which consumed the Hindenburg, killing 37 people.

Dear Editor:

On Thursday, October 19 the Dayton Central YMCA took a group of 39 Senior Citizens to the 1972 Pumpkin Show.

On route to the event our 'Y' bus developed mechanical troubles in Williamsport and could go no further.

A call was placed to Mr. Harold Hewitt of the Pickaway County 'Y' asking if assistance could be given. Mr. Hewitt graciously arranged for the Pickaway Sheriff's bus to go to Williamsport and transport these people to Circleville.

I commend the Pickaway 'Y' for their fine cooperation and the Pickaway County Sheriff's Department for assisting us in such a helpful and timely manner.

It is certainly encouraging to find such fine people involved in service to a community. They not only saved 39 people from a long, cold and boring wait on a broken down bus but they demonstrated that the people of Circleville and Pickaway County really care about service to people's needs. I feel that the people of Pickaway County should be extremely proud of its Sheriff's Department and the "working" evidence by the YMCA.

Gratefully yours,

30 YEARS AGO

Cary Grant, Victor McLaglen and Douglas Fairbanks Jr. were starring in the adventure movie hit "Gunga Din" at the Grand Theatre.

Pickaway County rationing board announced they had been authorized by the OPA to refuse tires to any violator of the national 35 mile per hour speed limit.

A critical coffee shortage hit Circleville when a local wholesaler was only allotted 15 per cent of the previous year's coffee supply. The shortage was blamed on an insufficient supply of coffee coming to the states from South America.

The city announced that the first parking meters installed in the downtown area March 10 had collected a total of $4,234.29 to this point. City council approved a measure to hire a man to maintain the meters and make the collections.

Boy Scouts of Circleville and other lads of the community who were 14 years of age or older were urged to sign up for training as messengers under the Circleville Civilian Defense Council.

Leroy T. Shaner, 128 East Union St., went all out for the scrap salvage campaign when he donated the iron fence which surrounded his property. The city service department removed the fence and added it to the scrap pile.

Williamsport village council banned the sale of beer on Sunday and decreed that all juke boxes must be shut off from midnight Saturday until 7 a.m. Monday.

The village council declared the emergency measure was necessary for the "preservation of the peace, health and safety of the community."

Circleville's goal line remained uncrossed for the season as the Tigers blanked Roseville 19-0. Tom Shea led the crushing ground game of the Red and Black.

Howard Glitt, 15-year-old Circleville Herald newspaper carrier, won district honors when he was named "Supreme War Bond Champion of the Month" for the area covered by fourth Ohio Region. He was awarded a medal for his effort.

Sheriff Charles Radcliff was chasing a car which was without lights when a group of boys playing in the street threw things at the fleeing auto.

When the driver stopped his car and began to chase the boys on foot, the sheriff also joined the chase on foot and captured the man.

They'll Do It Every Time

Harassing Congressmen

As soon as election returns become official, an army of pressure group mouthpieces will descend upon congressmen, new and old, to get in on the ground floor in attempting to win support for their pet projects. Few, if any, of these will be recommendations that would not require appropriations from the new Congress if enacted.

It has always been thus, and many a new congressman is amazed when he finds what various groups expect of him, although many may not have supported him in the election. Some who were so naive as to anticipate a rash of recommendations for good government, tax reduction, etc., say what they really went through turned their stomachs.

But there are more pressure groups with headquarters in Washington than ever and goals of many of them strive for should turn voters' stomachs. Obviously, they meet with some measure of success or they wouldn't all be in business.

Some, of course, are nothing but rackets, with those promoting them making an easy living while suckers provide the money and look for benefits to flow from the U.S. Treasury which never materialize. Everyone is familiar with the types who are dredged up into these "movements" and who actually donate their time in attempts to entice more of the weak-minded to follow their example.

Most old congressmen are hardboiled and don't fall for the pressure rackets but a few think these can pay off in votes and sell out. It is the newly elected members who should be warned what to expect.

Record Price

When an Atlanta, Ga., coin dealer recently paid $100,000 for a 1913 U.S. nickel, amateur coin collectors started scrutinizing their change more assiduously than ever. But they won't find any.

Only a few coins of this date are known to be in existence and they are all in rare coin collections. But the price paid for this coin shows anew that there is no limit to what genuine and rare antiques can become worth when collectors seek to own them.

A Texas coin dealer for years before World War II offered $50 for a 1913 nickel — thought to be a crazy price at the time — but never was offered any. He would be amazed to learn what one is worth today. He would probably conclude that rare coins are only for millionaires.

Speaking of YOUR HEALTH...

by LESTER L. COLEMAN, M.D.

I awoke one night with excruciating pain. It was diagnosed as a kidney stone. Only later was it found that the stone was caused by gout.

I am 50 and have never had symptoms of gout. I wonder how long it could have existed without my knowing about it.

Mr. T. C. A., Tex.

Gout is a very complex condition that involves many organs of the body.

When we speak of gout we somehow visualize the classical picture of the self-indulgent, overweight man, sitting in his overstuffed chair with his toe swathed in enormous bandages.

Actually, gout does not favor the rich or the self-indulgent. It can occur in every level of society.

Frequently, it is overlooked because the symptoms may be so meager at first. Vague pains in the joints may thus be overlooked as evidence of gout unless the blood is studied for abnormal amounts of uric acid.

Gout is a disturbance of the manufacture and accumulation of uric acid from certain foods. There is some hereditary tendency for this condition to occur more frequently in men than in women.

Uric acid studies are now a part of every complete blood examination. In this way, potential gout patients are flushed out of hiding long before the appearance of any symptoms in the joints, or stones in the kidney. Unlike calcium stones, uric acid stones do not show themselves by X-ray and therefore may be overlooked.

Uric acid is produced from foods that contain a high quality of purines. Foods like liver, sardines, anchovies, kidneys, sweetbreads and gravies are high in purines.

Diet and drugs can now prevent the progress of gout when it is recognized early. Two types of drugs are used. One, probenecid, aims at increasing the amount of uric acid excreted from the body in the urine. The second, a new drug, allopurinol, prevents the formation of uric acid, even from foods that are high in purine.

When once a gouty tendency is established, small doses of these drugs are prescribed and maintained for many years.

I have a friend who interprets everybody's dreams. She insists that all dreams have a meaning. Sometimes she worries us with her predictions.

Miss R. D., Idaho

The interpretation of dreams is not a game to be played by amateurs.

Dreams may have great significance when interpreted by those who are trained in the sciences of psychiatry and psychology.

Since your friend is not so trained, and undoubtedly relies on myths and superstitions for her interpretations, only anxiety can result. Stop telling her your dreams. Her game will soon cease.

TODAY In History

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Today is Monday, Oct. 30, the 304th day of 1972. There are 62 days left in the year.

Today's highlight in history: On this date in 1938, millions of people across the nation were panicked by Orson Welles' radio drama depicting an invasion from Mars.

In 1918, an armistice was granted to Turkey at the end of World War I.

In 1922, Benito Mussolini became Premier of Italy.

In 1941, a German submarine sank the U.S. Navy destroyer Reuben James off Iceland, although the United States was not yet a belligerent in World War II.

In 1964, rare gems, including the Star of India sapphire, were stolen from the American Museum of Natural History in New York.

Ten years ago: The first geodetic satellite was launched into orbit by U.S. scientists from what was then Cape Canaveral, Fla.

Five years ago: Two unmanned Soviet spacecraft linked up in orbit in preparation for making space platforms.

One year ago: France and Russia signed a declaration to make cooperation between the two countries what they called a "permanent factor in international life."

Beer Price War

Coming To Ohio?

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Anheuser-Busch set out Friday to cut the wholesale price of its canned Budweiser beer, setting off talk of a beer price war.

The price cut by Anheuser-Busch, the St. Louis firm with a plant in Columbus, will become effective next Wednesday, if the Ohio Department of Liquor Control clarifies a state regulation.

"The matter is on my desk right now," said Richard Gugenheim, state liquor control director. "I don't know what it's all about, but something's up."

Jewish Vote Turns To Nixon

By JOHN CHAMBERLAIN

George McGovern has been working overtime to win back some of the Jewish vote that has threatened to defect from the Democratic Party. Nevertheless the Jewish intellectuals who write for such magazines as Commentary and Ideas in New York City remain wary. A Commentary contributor, Milton Himmelfarb, notes that "the Arabists in the National Council of Churches were rapturous about McGovern's nomination," partly because one of McGovern's young campaign captains had signed his name to anti-Israel newspaper ads. It is not, however, merely a matter of the company that George McGovern keeps. The Jewish intellectuals are willing to concede that the Senator's heart may be in the right place, but they are made totally distrustful of his innocence.

The autumn special elections supplement of Ideas, A Journal of Contemporary Jewish Thought, bears down upon this innocence with particular vehemence. Listen to Rabbi Seymour Siegel, who says he is about to vote for the Presidential nominee of the Republican Party for the first time in his life. Rabbi Siegel shakes his head in wonder at McGovern's suggestion that planes should be furnished to Israel "on condition that they would not be able to fly over Arab territory." The stipulation, says Siegel, is ludicrous, for Israel is "such a small country that if a plane could not fly beyond its borders it would immediately have to begin to land as soon as it took off."

Max Galtman, the author of a number of books on contemporary Jewish life, finds it funny that McGovern should take Mayor Lindsay's "borrowed yarmulke to synagogues in the cities and to bar mitzvahs in the suburbs" and order a glass of milk with a kosher frankfurter. But McGovern's "close connection with Senator J. William Fulbright," who is described in Ideas as "the most influential pro-Arab voice in Congress," does not seem funny to Mr. Galtman at all. McGovern has said that Fulbright would make "a fine Secretary of State," and this scares Mr. Galtman almost as much as the prospect of seeing Jane Fonda in the Cabinet.

Dr. Jacob Neusner, professor of Religious Studies and director of the Graduate Program in History of Judaism at Brown University, tells the editors of Ideas that his mother and wife thought him crazy when, in 1970, he failed to vote the Democratic ticket. But this year the Neusner family is going for Nixon. McGovern's ideas about quotas sparked the Neusner family apostasy. "We Jews," says Dr. Neusner, "have had enough of quotas. We know that regardless of how noble they are made to sound, they are always — always — exclusionary."

that would compel him to favor a total welfare state. He doubts that it is the business of the Federal Government to dictate to parents "where their children are to be educated, regardless of distances and inconveniences involved." Finding nothing in the Torah that would justify quota systems of busing, Rabbi Petuchowski has told the editors of Ideas that he is voting the Nixon-Agnew ticket and is "happy in the knowledge that, in this choice, I shall not be alone."

The Editor-in-Chief of Ideas, Michael S. Kogan, thinks McGovern is "an unimaginative and frivolous man" who has provided some almost "laughable" solutions to contemporary problems. "Clearly," says Kogan, "the Senator has not the least comprehension of the intricacies of international relations. His pledge to withdraw the bulk of our troops from Europe would make a shambles of the painstakingly constructed China-Russia-United States balance."

It wasn't so many years ago that the New York Jewish intellectual world leaned predominantly to the Left. But it was never "New Left." This year, appalled at the movement of young radicals into the isolationist camp, Jewish writers are reacting strongly against New Left trends. This may not carry a majority of the Jewish vote to Nixon, but Jews have always been more respectful than most people toward their intellectuals. The Commentary and Ideas intellectuals will have an effect that might, conceivably, be the margin that throws New York State to the Republicans.

State Driver Law Is Voided

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The state cannot revoke the license of a driver for failure to pay damages in traffic accidents if the driver's debts are subsequently discharged in bankruptcy court, a federal judge ruled here Friday.

U.S. District Court Judge Carl Rubin also ruled that uninsured motorists involved in accidents who fail to post a security deposit cannot be deprived of their licenses without a hearing.

Both decisions came in a suit filed by citizens last year against Ohio's financial responsibility law for drivers. The suit had sought to have the entire law declared unconstitutional, which Rubin refused to do.

Production Of Steel On Increase

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP)—Steel production rates are evidence of improved business in the steel industry, Industry Week magazine said today.

The magazine said that in several of the nation's 11 steel-making districts, raw steel output is the highest since last May and June.

"In the Youngstown district, thanks to improving steel orders, some steel plants have just about all the business they can handle without taking the major step of blowing in additional blast furnaces to supply the necessary hot metal for the steel making furnaces," it added.

Many steel producers say they expect to maintain current raw steel production levels through the end of the year, Industry Week said.

The magazine estimated last week's output at 2,150,000 net tons, highest since the week ended last April 29.

Five per cent more raw steel has been made this year than a year ago, Industry Week said.

"October is turning out to be the best steel shipping month so far this year for many mills," it added. "However, others are experiencing surprisingly strong order entry for November and December shipments. As a result these two months probably will have smaller than normal seasonal declines in shipments."

Despite the rise in steel output, the supply of steelmaking scrap is ample, the magazine said. Its price composite on No. 1 heavy melting scrap held last week at the preceding week's figure of $38.33 a gross ton.

Tax Repeal Fight Makes Strange Bedfellows

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Another example of the income tax repeal amendment making strange political bedfellows cropped up at a Columbus news conference called by a Democrat and a Republican. State Finance Director Harold A. Hovey, and Howard L. Collier, finance chief under former

GOP Gov. James A. Rhodes, gave statistics which they said show that the income tax amendment should be defeated. Despite their political affiliations, the two fiscal experts do have quite a bit in common. Hovey's boss, Gov. John J. Gilligan, proposed and fought for the income tax. Collier left the Statehouse to become vice president-administration of the Medical College of Ohio at Toledo — a rapidly-developing institution seeking all the state funds it can get. Everything wasn't quite roses between the two. At one point, Collier pointed out that he doesn't agree with Hovey as to the latter's evaluation of the sales tax as a state revenue source. "The way it's worded in the law," Collier said, "I don't think it's all that regressive." Hovey, who often has called the sales tax "regressive," just smiled at his predecessor.

Ohio has been so barraged with Democratic presidential campaigning that many newsmen still can't quite fathom the state being as important as Sen. George McGovern says it is. There are, after all, several other states with big blocs of electoral votes.

The members of the national press were commenting about it recently on a McGovern campaign press bus in Dayton. Some of them acknowledged that although they don't make every trip with the senator, it seemed like they always were in Ohio. James Naughton of the New York Times said the reporters even have a song about it. He said it goes: "Why-O, Why-O, Why-O, do we keep coming back to Ohio?"

The senator and his running mate, R. Sargent Shriver, have made the song seem appropriate. Together, they've averaged about three trips a week into the state since the campaign got under way officially Labor Day weekend. And they say they are coming back some more.

Almost every state agency and lobbying organization in Columbus is busy holding news conferences these days explain how they will be hurt if income tax repeal should pass.

The following message, printed in its entirety, appeared on the press room bulletin board last week:

"Rotunda guide will hold a news conference at 9 a.m. Subject: No lights in statehouse if income tax is repealed."

Eugene McCarthy, the part-time poet and onetime Senator and presidential contender, has been sharpening his political wits to cut down President Nixon.

In Cleveland last week, McCarthy had this remark about the President:

"If Nixon had been captain of the Titanic when it hit the iceberg he would have gone on the loudspeaker and said, 'Don't be alarmed. We've just stopped for ice.'"

Liberal members of the GOP are referred to as "short rope Republicans" back in Minnesota, McCarthy said.

"If somebody is drowning 40 feet from shore they throw out

25 feet of rope and say, 'We've gone more than half the way...'"

House Speaker Charles F. Kurfess, who opposes repeal of the state income tax issue which appears on the Nov. 7 ballot, was asked recently what he was doing to insure the measure's defeat. He replied, "I spent five minutes at the United Air Lines Ticket counter at Toledo Airport answering questions about the repeal. Wherever I go and whenever I am asked, I discuss the issue."

Kurfess voted for passage of the graduated income tax when it was in the Ohio House and has since been attacked by a dissident group of Republicans who voted against the tax and who are now pressing for its repeal.

Convict 3 Men Of Spectacular Bank Burglary

LOS ANGELES (AP) — A federal jury has convicted three Ohio men of committing one of the largest burglaries in history — the multimillion dollar looting of a bank branch in the nearby exclusive community of Laguna Niguel last March.

After two days of deliberation the verdict was returned Friday against Amil Dinsio, 36, of Boardman; Charles Albert Mulligan, 38, of Youngstown, and Phillip Bruce Christopher, 31, of Cleveland.

All were found guilty of conspiracy, bank burglary and larceny by the seven-man, five woman jury.

Tabbed a "Mission: Impossible" burglary because of the ingenious method of entry, the thieves ransacked more than 450 safe deposit boxes of negotiable securities, jewels, cash and other valuables at the plush United California Bank.

Big Automakers To Seek Price Increase Approval

DETROIT (AP) — General Motors and Ford Motor Co., both reporting modest third quarter earnings, say they will renew their request to the Price Commission for a price hike.

The two auto giants contend that recent rejection of price increase requests had an adverse effect on profits for the third quarter, normally the worst quarter of the year due to model changeover.

GM announced Friday that third quarter profits were down 43.6 per cent from last year, falling from $217 million to $122 million, or from 75 to 41 cents a share. Ford's earnings were up from $86 million to $94 million, or from 83 to 96 cents a share.

Both companies said they would resubmit new price-hike requests to the Price Commission. Earlier, Ford followed GM's lead and trimmed its 1973 model price increase to $59 from $90.

Ford said it would ask for the $90 per-car-average hike originally requested before it trimmed back to a $59 increase. GM said it had not made a decision on whether to match its original request of $90.

The Price Commission had denied GM's revised request for a $59 hike on the basis that it might result in GM exceeding its base period profit margin.

GM Board Chairman Richard Gerstenberg and President Edward Cole said the profit margin for the first nine months is well below the base period average, as they had anticipated it would be.

Gerstenberg and Cole attributed the decline to the five-month strike at GM's Norwood, Ohio, plant, and to an unusually long model changeover period due to a redesigned line of intermediate cars.

GM reported third-quarter

(July-September) sales of 1,275,000 units — about 200,000 vehicles less than the same period last year. Dollar sales totaled $5.4 billion — off 4 per cent from last year's record third quarter. Dollar sales for the first nine months of the year were a record $21.6 billion, slightly above the previous record of $21.0 billion in the same period last year. Net income in the first nine months of 1972 was $1.496 billion, compared with $1.394 billion in the same period last year.

GM's net income record of $1,539 million was set in the comparable 1965 period.

Meanwhile, Ford Board Chairman Henry Ford II and President Lee Iacocca said worldwide third-quarter sales were a record $4.4 billion, up 15 per cent from sales of $3.8 billion in the third quarter of 1971.

In the first nine months of the year, worldwide sales were a record $14.6 billion, compared to $11.9 billion in the corresponding period last year.

Ford reported a record net income of $360 million, or $6.13 per share — up from the $453 million, or $4.24 per share earned in the first nine months of 1971.

Report WPAFB To Be Site For POW Medical Exams

DAYTON, Ohio (AP)—The Dayton Journal-Herald reported in a copyrighted story Saturday that 80 prisoners of war to be returned after the Vietnam peace accord is assigned will receive medical and psychological examinations at Wright-Patterson Air Force Base here.

The newspaper said information from base sources indicated part of the base's medical center will be converted to one-man-to-a-room quarters.

It said the POWs will undergo about 14 days of medical treatment and reorientation to accustom them to their freedom after months and years of internment in North Vietnam prison camps.

The Air Force here refused comment on the report.

The Wright-Patterson medical center is one of a number of U.S. military hospitals which will process returning POWs under a detailed plan drawn up in Washington, the Journal-Herald said. This facility is expected to handle men from a five-state surrounding area.

Room will be made here for the POWs, according to the newspaper, by halting in and out-patient care for military retired personnel and dependents.

The re-entry program will not deal with indoctrination or debriefing of the POWs, but will concentrate on updating history for them.

The newspaper said 80 cassette tapes and 80 sets of summaries of life in the United States from 1964 to the present already have been prepared for returning prisoners.

Political events are discussed relatively little on the tapes, it was reported, with emphasis being on sports, cars, movie Academy Awards and similar happenings.

A bargain is a bargain.

While you can see the new 1973 Beetle is still at a nice low price, you really can't begin to see the value until you know what you're getting for your money.

A warranty, for instance, that's twice what you get with any other small car: 24 months or 24,000 miles.

But then, we wouldn't be offering it if it weren't for our incredibly finicky factory inspection: over 1100 inspectors poring over more than 5,000 parts. It sounds compulsive, but it's the best way to reach perfection.

Senior Citizen Birthdays Observed At Meeting

The regular monthly all day social meeting of the Pickaway Senior Center was held in the Youth-Grange building on the Fairgrounds, Thursday, with 60 present.

During the lunch hour, members having birthdays during October were honored. Those present for the occasion were seated at a special birthday table and 5 birthday cakes had been provided for all to share. Members having October birthdays were: Frances Pitt, Lucille Warren, Lucile Giles, Alva Rinehart, Dick Robinson, Galina Ivascu, Pauline Jones, Elizabeth Hutchison, Catherine Hawks, Marvinne Young, Alton Stonerock, Catherine Leykauf, Mildred Koch, Lida Ross, Olive Eitel, Eva Heffelfinger, Anna Hedges, Bernice Lutz, Bryon Downs and Ruth Porter.

During the business meeting, Mrs. Eva Heffelfinger, vice-president, presided in the absence of John Miranda, the president. A tentative list of trips which may be taken during 1973 was read. Included were a Mark Twain boat trip on the Ohio River near Cincinnati, Air Force Museum at Fairborn, King's Island, Shaker Village, Kentucky, another one day trip to Cincinnati to places of interest there, and possibly a 2 day trip to Natural Bridge, Virginia. More definite information on these trips will be made available to the members in writing after the first of the year.

An up-coming trip was decided upon at this meeting. It will be on Wednesday, November 29, to Eastland Shopping Center, Columbus. Mr. Robinson's bus will be used, which can take 44, and will leave 9:30 a.m., returning to Circleville about 4:30 p.m. Members present interested in going signed up at the meeting. Others interested in being put on the list may call the Center at 474-4916.

Mrs. Louise Heine, chairman of the Telephone assurance committee, reported that a list of names of people who wished to be called daily, had been secured, and now the names of people who would like to do the calling are needed. This is a service which can be most comforting to people living alone. Anyone wishing to participate, either as a caller or to be called, may call Mrs. Heine at 474-3330.

Mrs. Lorentz spoke to the group regarding voting on Issue II at the November election, urging everyone to vote No. This will mean keeping the state income tax which very few senior citizens pay, and which has provided them with Homestead exemptions and a 10 per cent real estate roll back in taxes. Information sheets were given out also for each one to study for themselves.

The group decided to have a Flea Market sale at the garage at the Center on Friday and Saturday, December 8 and 9. Articles for sale will include those made at the Center, and all members are invited to contribute other articles to be sold, as well as coming to the Center to make more items for sale. Help will also be needed to get ready. Anyone wishing to help in any way may call the Center and volunteer. Things to be sold may be brought to the Center any day, Monday through Friday, between 8:30 a.m. and 4:30 p.m.

Mrs. Lorentz also reminded the members about "Operation Rudolph" which will be conducted again this year to help the poor in our community. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Jones of E. Ohio Street are again in charge of this program which helped over 250 families last year. Needed are good, usable clothing, toys, household goods, as well as staple foods and money. For more information call the Jones family at 474-6598.

The program for the afternoon was on Nutrition and was arranged for by Mrs. Pennie Nielsen, county demonstrator. Speaker was Mrs. Joanne Long of Marion, Ohio. She is also a county demonstrator who has been working with senior citizens in the Rotary Towers Senior Housing Center in Marion. Mrs. Long urged each one to save just 5 cents per meal and in a year's time, that would amount to over $50 - enough to buy a whole new outfit of clothes. She recommended watching for good sales, buying enriched foods, using items from the Big 4 groups - Milk, vegetables and fruits, meat, and breads and cereals. Doing this you are eating sufficient quantities of protein, iron and vitamins to keep your energy at peak performance. She suggested ways to vary food preparation, and emphasized the visual value of color and shape of foods on your plate.

The next all day meeting of the Pickaway Senior Center will be Thursday, November 16 in the Trinity Lutheran Parish House. This will be a carry-in dinner at noon. Program will include a short hanksgiving program and song fest. November birthdays will be observed, and Mr. Cassidy of the Blue Cross group sales will speak. Visitors and guests are welcome.

Pickaway Plains DAR Hears Of Mountain School

A Junior member of the Daughters of the American Revolution and the vice chairman of junior membership was the guest speaker at the Pickaway Plains Chapter on the third Tuesday of October. The Chapter met at the Pickaway County Historical Museum meeting room.

Mrs. Joseph Peters, regent opened the Chapter in the Ritualistic Form assisted by Mrs. R. R. Bales, chaplain. Mrs. Daniel Eitel, flag chairman led the Chapter in the pledge to the Flag of the United States of America, which was followed with the Chapter singing the Star-Spangled Banner. Mrs. Martin Conley was the accompanist.

Following the business meeting Mrs. Henry Bartholomew, program chairman introduced the guest speaker, Mrs. William Donges of Xenia. Mrs. Donges had chosen the "Mountain Speaks" as the subject of her talk, which was the story of the founding of The Berry School. Miss Martha Berry was the daughter of a southern plantation owner.

The father died leaving his holdings to his two daughters. Before his death he asked his daughters to always be kind to the poor mountain people. He explained that they should not just give but to let them earn it. Should a sack of flour is given, when that person returns he expects another sack. He would soon lose his self respect and continue to expect charity.

Miss Berry realized that these mountain children needed a school. One day while reading she saw several small boys peering through the windows at her. Their hands and faces were dirty as well as their clothing. They listened attentively to the stories that Miss Berry read to them. She invited them to have some cookies and lemonade. Their new friend insisted that they wash their hands and faces first.

After a while they came with clean hands and faces to hear Miss Berry read more stories and to get more refreshments. Soon she began to teach these boys to read. Their accomplishment was a great joy to the boys and a satisfaction to their teacher. More and more boys came to learn this magic trick or so it seemed to them.

At the certain season of the year the boys missed many days of school at times. They were working at home with the plowing, planting, weeding and harvesting of the crops. When the boys returned to school Miss forgotten most of what they had learned before. Now it was clear to her that a dormitory was needed. If they lived at the school they wouldn't be missing so many days.

A dormitory was built. The boys were required to help with the chores. Each was assigned certain tasks for the day. There was work in the laundry, in the kitchen cooking, in all of the house cleaning, and repairs. At first the boys rebelled at doing what they considered to be woman's work. Thinking it over the realized that the work was the only way they had to pay for their education. This far Miss Berry had used her own funds.

Later the girls decided they too needed an education. The school was growing. More boys and girls came as the word spread among the mountain homes and just what was being done for them. As the school grew so did the expenses. A dormitory was needed for the girls and another for the boys. Teachers and many different kind of supplies were needed. The Berry School needed help.

Miss Berry went out canvassing the countryside, the towns and the cities. She was successful although almost exhausted. Other necessities came. Miss Berry denied herself the new clothing she would have liked. She wore the old dresses and coat in order to save for the needs of Berry School. Again she was obliged to take the cause to the people. Henry Ford had heard of the school and what it was doing for mountain children. He and Mrs. Ford visited the school.

Henry Ford liked Miss Berry's plan, where these children worked for a part of their education. Henry Ford made a generous donation to the school. Other benefactors also were generous.

Today the school is still functioning with the donations from many sources. The boys and girls and proud to help by working while learning. Their education is truly theirs for they have earned it. Some of the Berry graduates have gone on to be doctors and lawyers.

Columbus Dispatch Urges Tax Repeal

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The Columbus Dispatch Sunday urged passage of the proposed income tax repeal amendment "so the level of taxation can be determined by the people after the administration and legislature have established a properly qualified and documented level of spending."

The newspaper said editorially that voter approval of the proposal Nov. 7 would assure "that a blank check not be handed the legislature."

The first electricity generated with atomic power was in 1951 at the Atomic Energy Commission's test site at Arco, Idaho.

Senior Citizen Birthdays Observed At Meeting

The regular monthly all day social meeting of the Pickaway Senior Center was held in the Youth-Grange building on the Fairgrounds, Thursday, with 60 present.

During the lunch hour, members having birthdays during October were honored. Those present for the occasion were seated at a special birthday table and 5 birthday cakes had been provided for all to share. Members having October birthdays were: Frances Pritt, Lucille Warren, Lucile Giles, Alva Rinehart, Dick Robinson, Galina Ivacu, Pauline Jones, Elizabeth Hutchison, Catherine Hawks, Marvinne Young, Alton Stonerock, Catherine Leykauf, Mildred Koch, Lida Ross, Olive Eitel, Eva Heffelfinger, Anna Hedges, Bernice Lutz, Bryon Downs and Ruth Porter.

During the business meeting, Mrs. Eva Heffelfinger, vice-president, presided in the absence of John Miranda, the president. A tentative list of trips which may be taken during 1973 was read. Included were a Mark Twain boat trip on the Ohio River near Cincinnati, Air Force Museum at Fairborn, King's Island, Shaker Village, Kentucky, another one day trip to Cincinnati to places of interest there, and possibly a 2 day trip to Natural Bridge, Virginia. More definite information on these trips will be made available to the members in writing after the first of the year.

An up-coming trip was decided upon at this meeting. It will be on Wednesday, November 29, to Eastland Shopping Center, Columbus. Mr. Robinson's bus will be used, which can take 44, and will leave 9:30 a.m., returning to Circleville about 4:30 p.m. Members present interested in going signed up at the meeting. Others interested in being put on the list may call the Center at 474-4916.

Mrs. Louise Heine, chairman of the Telephone assurance committee, reported that a list of names of people who wished to be called daily, had been secured, and now the names of people who would like to do the calling are needed. This is a service which can be most comforting to people living alone. Anyone wishing to participate, either as a caller or to be called, may call Mrs. Heine at 474-3330.

Mrs. Lorentz spoke to the group regarding voting on Issue II at the November election, urging everyone to vote No. This will mean keeping the state income tax which very few senior citizens pay, and which has provided them with Homestead exemptions and a 10 per cent real estate roll back in taxes. Information sheets were given out also for each one to study for themselves.

The group decided to have a Flea Market sale at the garage at the Center on Friday and Saturday, December 8 and 9. Articles for sale will include those made at the Center, and all members are invited to contribute other articles to be sold, as well as coming to the Center to make more items for sale. Help will also be needed to get ready. Anyone wishing to help in any way may call the Center and volunteer. Things to be sold may be brought to the Center any day, Monday through Friday, between 8:30 a.m. and 4:30 p.m.

Mrs. Lorentz also reminded the members about "Operation Rudolph" which will be conducted again this year to help the poor in our community. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Jones of E. Ohio Street are again in charge of this program which helped over 250 families last year. Needed are good, usable clothing, toys, household goods, as well as staple foods and money. For more information call the Jones family at 474-6598.

The program for the afternoon was on Nutrition and was arranged for by Mrs. Pennie Nielsen, county demonstrator. Speaker was Mrs. Joanne Long of Marion, Ohio. She is also a county demonstrator who has been working with senior citizens in the Rotary Towers Senior Housing Center in Marion. Mrs. Long urged each one to save just 5 cents per meal and in a year's time, that would amount to over $50 - enough to buy a whole new outfit of clothes. She recommended watching for good sales, buying enriched foods, using items from the Big 4 groups - Milk, vegetables and fruits, meat, and breads and cereals. Doing this you are eating sufficient quantities of protein, iron and vitamins to keep your energy at peak performance. She suggested ways to vary food preparation, and emphasized the visual value of color and shape of foods on your plate.

The next all day meeting of the Pickaway Senior Center will be Thursday, November 16 in the Trinity Lutheran Parish House. This will be a carry-in dinner at noon. Program will include a short hanksgiving program and song fest. November birthdays will be observed, and Mr. Cassidy of the Blue Cross group sales will speak. Visitors and guests are welcome.

Mrs. Moyer To Head Annual Staff

Mrs. Janice Moyer has accepted the duties of being the 1972-73 annual staff adviser. In addition to this, Mrs. Moyer teaches Mechanical Drawing I and II, 8th grade Industrial Arts (The World of Construction), and the 8th grade math.

Mrs. Moyer lives with her husband, Blaine E. Moyer, in Columbus.

After receiving her college education at Indiana University, Kent State University and Ohio State Universities, Mrs. Moyer taught general music in North Carolina and Bellefontaine, Ohio. She taught 1½ years before coming to Westfall.

MRS. JANICE MOYER
Industrial Arts and Annual

Commenting that Westfall is a rural school much like the one she used to attend, Mrs. Moyer is very happy teaching at Westfall.

"My life goals are to enjoy life and to continue learning and teaching," stated the new annual staff adviser.

Listed as her hobbies are water skiing, the piano, guitar, camping and reading. Mrs. Moyer also enjoys all sorts of sports.

Eight Attend FHA Confab

On Oct. 14, eight members of the Westfall FHA attended the Sub-Regional FHA meeting.

These girls were: Ellie Linton, Jean Jude, Leann Bauer, Susan Hillman, Mary Musselman, Terry Christensen, Jane Schein, and Karen Fausnaugh. Each of these girls participated in group talks such as Swap Shop, Public Relations, Award of Merit, and Program of Work.

After lunch, Susan Hillman was named the Sub-Regional FHA queen. Susan, vice president of the Westfall FHA, is the first Sub-Regional queen Westfall has ever had. Later this year she will compete for the state queen title.

Members of FHA joined with the Westfall Future Farmers to sponsor a fish fry last Friday. The menu included fish, baked beans, potato chips, cole slaw, pumpkin pie and chocolate cake, ice tea and coffee.

FHA will be holding a mock election on Nov. 6 in the cafeteria. Students will vote for the presidential candidate of their choice during their lunch period. The votes will be counted by FHA members and American government students at the end of the day. These results will then be compared with the results of the real election held on Nov. 7.

Westfall Students Take ACT Exam

Westfall students taking the ACT tests found the morning of Oct. 21 to be quite hectic.

Thirty students representing Westfall completed these tests which were given at Circleville High School. Many students found the tests to be rather time-consuming since approximately four hours were spent on tests of Student Review, English Usage, Mathematics, Social Studies, and Natural Science. They are anxiously awaiting the ACT results since these scores are important in future college plans.

Lucille Ball Set For Movie Role

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Comedienne Lucille Ball, after a four-year absence from movies, is returning as the star of the musical "Mame."

Warner Bros. Studios said Thursday it will start shooting the movie in January with Miss Ball portraying the flamboyant "Auntie Mame," a role created in the nonmusical version by Rosalind Wiseman in the 1950s.

SPOTLIGHT — This week, Mustang Country features six senior students who are: Lori Ellison, Cindy Beatty, Jane Covault, John Myers, Eric Rickabaugh, John Day.

Mustang Staff Honors 6 Seniors

Six Westfall seniors were recently chosen as Seniors of the Week for Mustang Country.

Lori Ellison of Route 1, New Holland, resides with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hollis Ellison. She is enrolled in the business course of study.

Lori is a member of the Drama Club and National Honor Society. She is also the secretary of the county National Honor Society. Lori lists her hobbies as reading, sewing, cooking, swimming, bike-riding, and John.

She plans to get a job following graduation and hopes to become an executive secretary.

Eric Rickabaugh resides with his parents, Harold and Juanita Rickabaugh of Orient, and is involved in the college preparatory courses.

He is a member of the football team, Echo Staff, and Varsity "W". His activities also include being president of the Science Club and Rocket Club. Eric has been a member of the French Club and Track team, and he is presently one of the light controllers for the Drama Club. His interests involve golf, model rocketry, and reading.

Eric's future plans include enrollment in engineering at Ohio State University.

Jane Covault, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Lloyd Covault, is also enrolled in college prep courses at school. She likes to cook, sew, swim, skate, and date. She also loves to go places.

Jane is a member of the Echo Staff, NHS, and GAA. She has previously been a member of the annual staff, Latin Club, Drama Club, and Ski Club. Following graduation, Jane plans to attend Grove City Technical School to become a dental assistant.

John Myers, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Lewis Myers, resides at Route 3, Orient, and is taking college prep courses. He is active in marching, concert, and pep bands, and is vice-president of the Science Club. John has been a member of the French Club and Rocket Club and is currently a light and sound controller of the Drama Club.

John has received two trophies for various science fair projects and has won a medal in the state music contest. He was recently selected for Who's Who Among American High School Students. John lists his interests as swimming, running, rock building, water skiing, and playing intramural sports.

New Student Is From Arkansas

Donna Brown, a 17-year-old senior, came to Westfall this year from Piggott High School in Piggott, Arkansas. She resides with her parents Mr. and Mrs. David Brown.

At Piggott High, Donna took part in the Pep Club, Library Club, and the Debate Club. She is not certain which clubs she will join at Westfall.

Donna says Westfall is a lot more advanced than Piggott and the students are pretty nice here. She says every school has its bad kids and good kids and Westfall has mostly good kids.

As her dislikes Donna lists: people who think they are better than anyone else, and snotty people. She enjoys going walking alone so she can think. Donna is enrolled in business courses and is a very good student.

Cincy Man Is Slain In Shootout

BEATTYVILLE, Ky. (AP) — The death of a Cincinnati man in a shootout with two Beattyville policemen early Sunday has been ruled justifiable homicide by Lee County Coroner Emmett Daugherty.

John D. Brown, 34, was shot four times by patrolmen John Lambert, 22, and Carl Palmer, 57, after he apparently fired on them when stopped for questioning.

Palmer was wounded slightly in the exchange of gunshots and was treated at an area hospital. Police Chief James Couch said Palmer was grazed by a bullet that lodged in his gun-belt.

State Police at Richmond said Brown was stopped on Lower Creek road in the city following complaints from residents who said Brown was driving through town firing a gun.

Couch said the Cincinnati man was here visiting relatives.

Couch said he planned to talk to the city attorney today to determine if any further investigation is needed in the incident.

New Cincy Station Open

CINCINNATI (AP) — AM-TRAK's new mini-station, replacing the famed Cincinnati Union Terminal, has begun operating.

The James Whitcomb Riley, bound for Chicago, left the $275,000 mini-station near downtown Cincinnati at 7:05 a.m. Sunday.

It will serve the only passenger trains running through Cincinnati.

Railroad employees, railroad buffs and passengers appeared at the station and were given complimentary coffee and doughnuts. Female passengers were given pink carnation corsages.

"This is the first new AM-TRAK station in the United States," Roy Noel, manager of station services said. "It is not experimental. The station was designed with Cincinnati in mind, but it should be duplicated across the United States."

16 Die On Ohio Highways During 'Average' Weekend

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

It was an average weekend on Ohio's streets and highways with 16 people dying in traffic accidents. Four of the victims were pedestrians.

The toll, about normal for a non-holiday weekend, included double fatality smashups in Seneca and Franklin counties.

The dead:

FRIDAY NIGHT
COLUMBUS — James Krum, 32, Columbus, struck by a car as he walked along Ohio 16 in western Licking County.

WARREN — Richard F. Smith, 39, Cortland, in a one-car crash on Ohio 8 just east of Ohio 45 in Trumbull County.

SPRINGFIELD — William Wilson Jr., 18, Springfield, in a two-car smashup on East Main Street in Springfield.

MARIETTA — Elton D. Stolar, 18, Watertown, when the car he was riding in crashed on Ohio 78 in Morgan County.

BRYAN — Helen Willey, 58, near Hamilton, Ind., when her car went out of control and hit a utility pole on a rural Williams County road.

CLEVELAND — Norval Strauss, 56, Cleveland, struck by a car as he walked along I-90 near suburban Bratenahl.

MIDDLEBURG HEIGHTS — John Socotch Jr., 49, Strongsville, in a one-car crash on I-71 in Middleburg Heights.

SATURDAY
AKRON — Sandra Krainess, 42, Akron, struck by a car as she crossed an Akron street.

AKRON — James St. Clair, 41, Akron, hit by a car as he crossed at an Akron intersection.

MANSFIELD — Scot Pfahler, 25, Shelby, in a one-car crash on Ohio 96 east of Ohio 13 in Richland County.

MASON — Janice W. Glick, 18, Cincinnati, when her car was struck broadside at an intersection near Mason in Warren County.

SUNDAY
TIFFIN — Israel Myers, 61, and Lester Smith, 44, both of Tiffin, when their car collided with a truck on U.S. 23 in Seneca County.

McARTHUR — David White, 22, of Columbus, in a two-car wreck on a rural road in Vinton County.

COLUMBUS — Frank Schoopy of Route 1, Hamlin, and Melvin Youngblood, 32, of Route 3, Plain City, in a two-car crash at an intersection in northwestern Franklin County.

Liquor Department Shifts Burden To Local Police

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The state of Ohio, claiming it is getting short-handed, is setting out to shift more enforcement work onto local police departments.

The move is part of an efficiency program designed to save the Department of Liquor Control $750,000 to $850,000 a year and cut back staff by up to 66 persons.

Richard Guggenheim, director of liquor control, disclosed the program Friday in a news conference.

"We turn over some $10 million annually in liquor department revenues to local communities," said Guggenheim. "This money is to be used in liquor law enforcement for which the General Assembly has directed it must be channeled."

"We believe in too many communities this money is not being effectively used for liquor law enforcement. The money goes out and disappears into a black void."

Donald Lwas, deputy director, said cooperation with large cities which have specialized personnel police "was great." But, he said, smaller police departments haven't the specialized people.

"Their people are too well-known," Lwas said. "That's where we can move in and help out with our agents."

The state's enforcement and inspection agents are going to be consolidated into one division and will stop duplicating work.

The move is a part of a $12,000 study done by Guggenheim by a private consultant firm.

Under recommendations by the consultants, more accounting will be done by computers and work duplications eliminated, Guggenheim said.

"Many times data processing statistics are checked by hand," he explained. "Investigations of permit premises are conducted by as many as three different sets of agents in three divisions."

Guggenheim pointed out that the work of inspecting beer dispensing systems for cleanliness would be shifted over to local health departments.

The state liquor control department has a total staff of 2,200, but the efficiency program

Boggs Hunt Hampered

ANCHORAGE, Alaska (AP) — Snow and poor visibility have forced temporary cancellation of the hunt for the missing light plane carrying House Democratic Leader Hale Boggs and three others.

A spokesman at the Rescue Coordination Center at Elmendorf Air Force Base said Sunday night that 35 planes were ready to resume the search as soon as weather permitted. But the National Weather Service predicted more of the same conditions which kept all but two Coast Guard planes on the ground Sunday.

For the first time since the search began Oct. 18, no Air Force planes were aloft Sunday. Light snow, fog and a 1,000-foot ceiling were reported — the worst weather conditions since the Cessna 310 disappeared on a flight from Anchorage to Juneau.

Aboard the plane were Boggs, 58; Alaska Democratic Congressman Nick Begich, 40; Russell L. Brown, 37, a Begich aide, and the pilot, Don T. Jonz, 38.

Mrs. Moyer To Head Annual Staff

Mrs. Janice Moyer has accepted the duties of being the 1972-73 annual staff adviser. In addition to this, Mrs. Moyer teaches Mechanical Drawing I and II, 8th grade Industrial Arts (The World of Construction), and the 8th grade math.

Mrs. Moyer lives with her husband, Blaine E. Moyer, in Columbus.

After receiving her college education at Indiana University, Kent State University and Ohio State University, Mrs. Moyer taught general music in North Carolina and Bellefontaine, Ohio. She taught 1½ years before coming to Westfall.

MRS. JANICE MOYER
Industrial Arts and Annual

Commenting that Westfall is a rural school much like the one she used to attend, Mrs. Moyer is very happy teaching at Westfall.

"My life goals are to enjoy life and to continue learning and teaching," stated the new annual staff adviser.

Listed as her hobbies are water skiing, the piano, guitar, camping and reading. Mrs. Moyer also enjoys all sorts of sports.

Eight Attend FHA Confab

On Oct. 14, eight members of the Westfall FHA attended the Sub-Regional FHA meeting.

These girls were: Ellie Linton, Jean Jude, Leann Bauer, Susan Hillman, Mary Musselman, Terry Christensen, Jane Schein, and Karen Fausnaugh. Each of these girls participated in group talks such as Swap Shop, Public Relations, Award of Merit, and Program of Work.

After lunch, Susan Hillman was named the Sub-Regional FHA queen. Susan, vice president of the Westfall FHA, is the first Sub-Regional queen Westfall has ever had. Later this year she will compete for the state queen title.

Members of FHA joined with the Westfall Future Farmers to sponsor a fish fry last Friday. The menu included fish, baked beans, potato chips, cole slaw, pumpkin pie and chocolate cake, ice tea and coffee.

FHA will be holding a mock election on Nov. 6 in the cafeteria. Students will vote for the presidential candidate of their choice during their lunch period. The votes will be counted by FHA members and American government students at the end of the day. These results will then be compared with the results of the real election held on Nov. 7.

Westfall Students Take ACT Exam

Westfall students taking the ACT tests found the morning of Oct. 21 to be quite hectic.

Thirty students representing Westfall completed these tests which were given at Circleville High School. Many students found the tests to be rather time-consuming since approximately four hours were spent on tests of Student Review, English Usage, Mathematics, Social Studies, and Natural Science. They are anxiously awaiting the ACT results since these scores are important in future college plans.

Lucille Ball Set For Movie Role

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Comedienne Lucille Ball, after a four-year absence from movies, is returning as the star of the musical "Mame."

Warner Bros. Studios said Thursday it will start shooting the movie in January with Miss Ball portraying the flamboyant "Auntie Mame," a role created in the nonmusical version by Rosalind Wiseman in the 1950s.

SPOTLIGHT — This week, Mustang Country features six senior students who are: Lori Ellison, Cindy Beatty, Jane Covault, John Myers, Eric Rickabaugh, John Day.

Mustang Staff Honors 6 Seniors

Six Westfall seniors were recently chosen as Seniors of the Week for Mustang Country.

Lori Ellison of Route 1, New Holland, resides with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hollis Ellison. She is enrolled in the business course of study.

Lori is a member of the Drama Club and National Honor Society. She is also the secretary of the county National Honor Society. Lori lists her hobbies as reading, sewing, cooking, swimming, bike-riding, and John.

She plans to get a job following graduation and hopes to become an executive secretary.

Eric Rickabaugh resides with his parents, Harold and Juanita Rickabaugh of Orient, and is involved in the college preparatory courses.

He is a member of the football team, Echo Staff, and Varsity "W". His activities also include being president of the Science Club and Rocket Club. Eric has been a member of the French Club and Track team, and he is presently one of the light controllers for the Drama Club. His interests involve golf, model rocketry, and reading.

Eric's future plans include enrollment in engineering at Ohio State University.

Jane Covault, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Lloyd Covault, is also enrolled in college prep courses at school. She likes to cook, sew, swim, skate, and date. She also loves to go places.

Jane is a member of the Echo Staff, NHS, and GAA. She has previously been a member of the annual staff, Latin Club, Drama Club, and Ski Club. Following graduation, Jane plans to attend Grove City Technical School to become a dental assistant.

John Myers, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Lewis Myers, resides at Route 3, Orient, and is taking college prep courses.

He is active in marching, concert, and pep bands, and is vice-president of the Science Club. John has been a member of the French Club and Rocket Club and is currently a light and sound controller of the Drama Club.

John has received two trophies for various science fair projects and has won a medal in the state music contest. He was recently selected for Who's Who Among American High School Students. John lists his interests as swimming, running, rock building, water skiing, and playing intramural sports.

New Student Is From Arkansas

Donna Brown, a 17-year-old senior, came to Westfall this year from Piggott High School in Piggott, Arkansas. She resides with her parents Mr. and Mrs. David Brown.

At Piggott High, Donna took part in the Pep Club, Library Club, and the Debate Club. She is not certain which clubs she will join at Westfall.

Donna says Westfall is a lot more advanced than Piggott and the students are pretty nice here. She says every school has its bad kids and good kids and Westfall has mostly good kids.

As her dislikes Donna lists: people who think they are better than anyone else, and snotty people. She enjoys going walking alone so she can think.

Donna is enrolled in business courses and is a very good student.

THIEU SPEAKS ON PEACE—Nguyen Van Thieu, right, looks at group of some 1,000 city and province councilmen and National Assembly deputies as they

Brazil Becomes Competitive In Production Of Soybeans

By DON KENDALL
AP Farm Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — American farmers produce and export more soybeans than anyone else and are heavily favored to maintain the lead, but the Agriculture Department said today Brazil is emerging as a full-fledged competitor.

Citing unprecedented high world prices for soybeans, the USDA Foreign Agricultural Service said demand spurred Brazilian production 60 per cent in 1971-72 to about 3.4 million metric tons. This season, with planting now going on, the output could rise to 4.0 million tons.

By comparison, USDA estimates American farmers will produce more than 1.3 billion bushels this year or about 36 million tons.

But Brazil continues soybean expansion and may double today's acreage by the 1976-77 crop, the FAS report said.

Exports of Brazilian beans and soybean meal also have risen dramatically. Bean sales, mostly to the European Community, and favored U.S. market, are expected to be about 1.0 million tons this year plus a similar amount of meal, both up sharply since last year.

The United States this year is expected to export 13.5 million tons of soybeans and 3.6 million tons of meal.

"The Brazilian government has been a major force behind this growth, actively encouraging the acreage expansion needed to bring about larger production and trade," the report said.

ONU Counselor To Visit With CHS, LE Teens

Circleville and Logan Elm Schools will host this week a representative from Ohio Northern University seeking prospective students for the college.

Joe Banks, an admissions counselor at ONU in Ada, will meet with Circleville students Thursday afternoon and with Logan Elm students on Friday. Both sessions will begin 12:30 and continue through the afternoon. Persons may contact the school to make an appointment.

Ohio Northern is a church related university with 2,500 students enrolled in colleges of liberal arts, engineering, pharmacy and law. The 102-year-old, co-educational university has a 120-acre campus where most students live in residence halls or fraternity houses.

ONU offers a bachelor of arts degree in 16 departments in the college of liberal arts. Engineers may select a four or five year course in their search of a bachelor's degree in civil, electrical or mechanical engineering. The bachelor of science in pharmacy is offered after successful completion of a five-year course.

The bachelor's degree is required for admission to the law school, which has a three-year course leading to the Juris Doctor degree.

Metermaid Is Without Fear

DECATUR, Ill. (AP) — Metermaid Becky McFadden, 39, put a ticket on her boss's car and received a commendation for her effort.

Jack W. Loftis, acting city manager, said Miss McFadden, who was hired under the Emergency Employment Act, was doing the job she was hired to do.

"And I hope other metermaids will follow the pattern set by Miss McFadden," he added.

Teens Cited On Traffic Violations

Traffic citations, issued by local law enforcement officers, brought a number of teenage drivers into juvenile court recently.

Derek P. Morris, Route 3, cited for reckless operation when he drove his car left of center causing an injury accident on the Circleville-Tarleton Road in September, was fined $10 by the court. His license was suspended six weeks.

A reckless operation charge was filed against 17-year-old Myron C. Seymour II, of Route 1, Williamsport. The Westfall senior lost his license for 30 days when he was found guilty of the charge stemming from a one-car crash near the Darbyville Cemetery.

Squealing tires and making excessive noise with his automobile, meant a two-week suspension of driving privileges for John L. Walker, 17, of 154 E. Water St. John was cited by the city police.

Seventeen-year-old Ann E. Yates, charged with failure to yield to traffic, lost her driver license for two weeks following the accident.

Speeding 40 in a 20 mile zone brought a month's license suspension for Burton G. Keener, 17, of 710 Northridge Road.

485 Parents Attend CJHS Open House

Four hundred and eighty-five parents almost filled the main floor of the auditorium at the Circleville Junior High School for the general session of the annual Open House last Thursday evening.

Principal J. L. Chilcote in welcoming parents spoke briefly about problems of the school administrator. One of the problems outlined was that of the growing attitude of permissiveness on the part of parents, teachers, courts, and most people in general. He pointed out that if the permissive attitude would make better citizens in the future, then people should be for it, but if it made for a questionable citizenry, they should resist it.

School Board President Dale DeLong was presented and he talked about Issue 2. He warned that if the income tax were repealed, the financing of Circleville City Schools, as well as most of the others in the state, would be imperiled. Further, if the tax were repealed, the biggest breaks in future taxes would go to the higher income people who don't need the relief as much as lower and middle income families do. Also large corporations would have smaller taxes while more would be put on farmers and small businesses.

Mr. Chilcote introduced the 41 faculty members, 13 of whom are new to Circleville.

Open House Chairman Mrs. Neale Phillips outlined the schedule for the remainder of the evening, and parents met with teachers in four shortened class sessions. Three teachers outlined their instructional goals for the year. After the brief sessions, everyone assembled in the cafeteria for a social hour. They were served punch, coffee, assorted tea cakes, and minitarts.

New name and subject plates for the doors of all classrooms were prepared by Kester McCain and Mrs. Sharon Wilamowski.

Cincinnati Union Terminal To Handle Last Passengers

CINCINNATI (AP) — The rumble of passenger trains under the Cincinnati Union Terminal's muraled concourse was heard and felt for the last time Saturday.

The dome-shaped terminal, built in 1933 for $41 million and billed as one of the most modern railroad stations in the world, ended passenger service when an Amtrak train departed for Newport News, Va., at 11:05 p.m.

Because of high costs and limited business, Amtrak decided to build a mini-station to replace the privately-owned terminal. The station opened Sunday.

The terminal concourse, adorned with murals of industrial progress in the Cincinnati area, has been sold to the Southern Railway and will be demolished. Below the concourse, tracks for 32 passenger gates will be removed.

What will happen to the 100-foot high rotunda, the front part of the station which bears even larger murals than the concourse, is undecided.

"I think anybody connected with the station has a tear in his eye," said George Gray, manager of the station the past 12 years and veteran Baltimore & Ohio employee before that.

Gray said he did not know of any ceremonies planned for when the last train leaves.

In contrast, the terminal, which served passengers for as many as 93 arrivals and 93 departures daily in the 1940s, opened amid confusion.

The terminal in the West End section near downtown Cincinnati was forced to open about a week ahead of schedule because of high water at the old Cincinnati Union Depot in the downtown Queen City.

"When we got to the station, nobody knew where they were going," recalled Gerald McClintock, 75, a retired 49-year B&O employee.

McClintock, a conductor, said he was on the first train moving into the station. He said "it was a terrible rainy night, but we had to get the trains and cars out of the old depot. They weren't ready for us at the terminal."

Urbana College President Resigns

URBANA, Ohio (AP) — The Urbana College Board of Trustees Friday accepted the resignation of President Paul Zehner, effective Nov. 1.

The only reason given by the trustees for Zehner's resignation was that he wanted "to fulfill personal needs and further achievement of educational goals."

THIEU SPEAKS ON PEACE—Nguyen Van Thieu, right, looks at group of some 1,000 city and province councilmen and National Assembly deputies as they

485 Parents Attend CJHS Open House

Four hundred and eighty-five parents almost filled the main floor of the auditorium at the Circleville Junior High School for the general session of the annual Open House last Thursday evening.

Principal J. L. Chilcote in welcoming parents spoke briefly about problems of the school administrator. One of the problems outlined was that of the growing attitude of permissiveness on the part of parents, teachers, courts, and most people in general. He pointed out that if the permissive attitude would make better citizens in the future, then people should be for it, but if it made for a questionable citizenry, they should resist it.

School Board President Dale DeLong was presented and he talked about Issue 2. He warned that if the income tax were repealed, the financing of Circleville City Schools, as well as most of the others in the state, would be imperiled. Further, if the tax were repealed, the biggest breaks in future taxes would go to the higher income people who don't need the relief as much as lower and middle income families do. Also large corporations would have smaller taxes while more would be put on farmers and small businesses.

Mr. Chilcote introduced the 41 faculty members, 13 of whom are new to Circleville. Open House Chairman Mrs. Neale Phillips outlined the schedule for the remainder of the evening, and parents met with teachers in four shortened class sessions. Three teachers outlined their instructional goals for the year. After the brief sessions, everyone assembled in the cafeteria for a social hour. They were served punch, coffee, assorted tea cakes, and minitarts.

New name and subject plates for the doors of all classrooms were prepared by Kester McCain and Mrs. Sharon Wilamowski.

Cincinnati Union Terminal To Handle Last Passengers

CINCINNATI (AP) — The rumble of passenger trains under the Cincinnati Union Terminal's muffled concourse was heard and felt for the last time Saturday.

The dome-shaped terminal, built in 1933 for $41 million and billed as one of the most modern railroad stations in the world, ended passenger service when an Amtrak train departed for Newport News, Va., at 11:05 p.m.

Because of high costs and limited business, Amtrak decided to build a mini-station to replace the privately-owned terminal. The station opened Sunday.

The terminal concourse, adorned with murals of industrial progress in the Cincinnati area, has been sold to the Southern Railway and will be demolished. Below the concourse, tracks for 32 passenger gates will be removed.

What will happen to the 100-foot high rotunda, the front part of the station which bears even larger murals than the concourse, is undecided.

"I think anybody connected with the station has a tear in his eye," said George Gray, manager of the station the past 12 years and veteran Baltimore & Ohio employee before that. Gray said he did not know of any ceremonies planned for when the last train leaves.

In contrast, the terminal, which served passengers for as many as 93 arrivals and 93 departures daily in the 1940s, opened amid confusion.

The terminal in the West End section near downtown Cincinnati was forced to open about a week ahead of schedule because of high water at the old Cincinnati Union Depot in the downtown Queen City.

"When we got to the station, nobody knew where they were going," recalled Gerald McClintock, 75, a retired 49-year B&O employee.

McClintock, a conductor, said he was on the first train moving into the station. He said "it was a terrible rainy night, but we had to get the trains and cars out of the old depot. They weren't ready for us at the terminal."

Brazil Becomes Competitive In Production Of Soybeans

By DON KENDALL
AP Farm Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — American farmers produce and export more soybeans than anyone else and are heavily favored to maintain the lead, but the Agriculture Department said today Brazil is emerging as a full-fledged competitor.

Citing unprecedented high world prices for soybeans, the USDA Foreign Agricultural Service said demand spurred Brazilian production 60 per cent in 1971-72 to about 3.4 million metric tons. This season, with planting now going on, the output could rise to 4.0 million tons.

By comparison, USDA estimates American farmers will produce more than 1.3 billion bushels this year or about 36 million tons.

But Brazil continues soybean expansion and may double today's acreage by the 1976-77 crop, the FAS report said.

Exports of Brazilian beans and soybean meal also have risen dramatically. Bean sales, mostly to the European Community, and favored U.S. market, are expected to be about 1.0 million tons this year plus a similar amount of meal, both up sharply since last year.

The United States this year is expected to export 13.5 million tons of soybeans and 3.6 million tons of meal.

"The Brazilian government has been a major force behind this growth, actively encouraging the acreage expansion needed to bring about larger production and trade," the report said.

Price supports available to Brazilian soybean growers have increased to $2.29 per bushel but—as in the case of the U.S. market—cash prices have exceeded the loan rate, reaching a peak of $2.97 per bushel last season.

Soybean prices in the United States have been more than $3 per bushel for many months, compared with the government's support rate of $2.25.

Department analysts said the high soybean prices have caused many Brazilian farmers to turn away from traditional crops such as cotton, corn and coffee.

The soybean boom also has made the crop a favorite on newly developed land, the report said.

"In Parana state, for instance, most of the expanded acreage can be attributed to cotton farmers turning to soybeans after being disappointed with returns," the FAS said.

ONU Counselor To Visit With CHS, LE Teens

Circleville and Logan Elm Schools will host this week a representative from Ohio Northern University seeking prospective students for the college.

Joe Banks, an admissions counselor at ONU in Ada, will meet with Circleville students Thursday afternoon and with Logan Elm students on Friday. Both sessions will begin 12:30 and continue through the afternoon. Persons may contact the school to make an appointment.

Ohio Northern is a church-related university with 2,500 students enrolled in colleges of liberal arts, engineering, pharmacy and law. The 102-year-old, co-educational university has a 120-acre campus where most students live in residence halls or fraternity houses.

ONU offers a bachelor of arts degree in 16 departments in the college of liberal arts. Engineers may select a four or five year course in their search of a bachelor's degree in civil, electrical or mechanical engineering. The bachelor of science in pharmacy is offered after successful completion of a five-year course.

The bachelor's degree is required for admission to the law school, which has a three-year course leading to the Juris Doctor degree.

Metermaid Is Without Fear

DECATUR, Ill. (AP) — Metermaid Becky McFadden, 39, put a ticket on her boss's car and received a commendation for her effort.

Jack W. Loftus, acting city manager, said Miss McFadden, who was hired under the Emergency Employment Act, was doing the job she was hired to do.

"And I hope other metermaids will follow the pattern set by Miss McFadden," he added.

Teens Cited On Traffic Violations

Traffic citations, issued by local law enforcement officers, brought a number of teenage drivers into juvenile court recently.

Derek P. Morris, Route 3, cited for reckless operation when he drove his car left of center causing an injury accident on the Circleville-Tarleton Road in September, was fined $10 by the court. His license was suspended six weeks.

A reckless operation charge was filed against 17-year-old Myron C. Seymour II, of Route 1, Williamsport. The Westfall senior lost his license for 30 days when he was found guilty of the charge stemming from a one-car crash near the Darbyville Cemetery.

Squealing tires and making excessive noise with his automobile, meant a two-week suspension of driving privileges for John L. Walker, 17, of 154 E. Water St. John was cited by the city police.

Seventeen-year-old Anna E. Yates, charged with failure to yield to traffic, lost her driver license for two weeks following the accident.

Speeding 40 in a 20 mile zone brought a month's license suspension for Burton G. Keener, 17, of 710 Northridge Road.

Minnesota Vikings Dump Pack, 27-13

By KEN RAPPOPORT
Associated Press Sports Writer
The Purple Gang has been reincarnated, although Carl Eller believes that it's still a ghost of its former self.
After the Minnesota Vikings demonstrated some of their old-time defensive magic in beating the Green Bay Packers 27-13 Sunday, their ringleader declared:
"We're not back yet ... wherever we've been, we're not back."
The brawny defensive end referred to Minnesota's unimpressive 3-4 record and unimposing last-place posture in the National Football Conference's Central Division.
They were destined for better things this year, according to general opinion.
"But we haven't been playing well," said Minnesota Coach Bud Grant, whose team has won four straight Central crowns.
No matter where the Purple Gang has been hiding, those tough guys were just as bullish as ever Sunday in pushing around a fairly potent offensive team.

Paul Krause and Wally Hilgenberg each intercepted a Scott Hunter pass and wheeled back for touchdowns and Eller and his bruising mates on that Front Four wall made life miserable for the Packers' gifted quarterback.
"I'd have to call this our best game of the season," said Grant. "Now we've got to play them one at a time. I know that's a cliché, but I think it applies here."
Minnesota's victory spoiled a chance for Green Bay to take over possession of first place in the nervous Central Division race. The Packers, who started the day tied with the Detroit Lions, fell to a 4-3 record and a half-game behind the Lions.
Detroit meets the Dallas Cowboys tonight.
The Cowboys, defending National Football League champions, fell 1 1/2 games off Washington's pace in the East as a result of the Redskins' 23-16 victory over the New York Giants Sunday.
In the other games, the Miami Dolphins trounced the

Baltimore Colts 23-0; the New York Jets limbed the New England Patriots 34-10; the Cincinnati Bengals clouted the Houston Oilers 39-7; the Pittsburgh Steelers trimmed the Buffalo Bills 32-21; the Oakland Raiders hammered the Los Angeles Rams 45-17; the Kansas City Chiefs defeated the San Diego Chargers 26-14, the Cleveland Browns tripped the Denver Broncos 27-20; the San Francisco 49ers crushed the Atlanta Falcons 49-14; the New Orleans Saints stopped the Philadelphia Eagles 21-3 and the Chicago Bears bombed the St. Louis Cardinals 27-10.

Earl Morrall, a Baltimore Colt castoff, led Miami to a convincing victory over his former teammates as the unbeaten Dolphins won their seventh straight year. The Dolphins picked up the veteran quarterback from the Colts during the off-season and Morrall hasn't lost a game since filling in for the injured Bob Griese three weeks ago.
Emerson Rooser busted free for three touchdowns in the Jets' runaway over the Pats. Quarterback Joe Namath set up Rooser's romps of 5, 12 and 15 yards with intelligent passing.

Doug Dressler rushed for 110 yards—more than half his total last year—and scored a touchdown in Cincinnati's romp. Franco Harris ran for two TDs and scored another on a pass from Terry Bradshaw to lead Pittsburgh over Buffalo.
Oakland cashed in a fumbled opening kickoff and three pass interceptions in scoring four first-half touchdowns enroute to an easy triumph over Los Angeles. The Raiders' victory kept them a half-game in front of Kansas City in the AFC West.
Jan Stenerud booted four field goals as Kansas City scored 23 points in the second half for a comeback triumph over San Diego.
Cleveland stopped Denver as quarterback Mike Phipps plunged over from the one-yard-line with 2:50 left in the game. Phipps had earlier thrown two TD passes.

laugh. A part-time back one week ago, he moved into starting duties after a trade sent Bengals running backs Fred Willis and Paul Robinson to the Oilers last week.
Dressler, a 6-foot-1, 190-pound third-year man out of Chico State College of California, responded Sunday with 110 yards in 19 carries and got the Bengals' opening touchdown—by far his best rushing day as a pro.
Fancy-stepping Essex Johnson complemented that effort with 103 yards in 16 carries, including a 17-yard touchdown gallop before a well-placed

Bengals Crush Oilers, 30-7

CINCINNATI (AP) — Husky Doug Dressler lowered his head and ripped his forearm into Houston linebacker Richard Lewis.
Lewis flew backward with Dressler stomping out of bounds after an 11-yard gain in the third period of Cincinnati's 30-7 National Football League victory over the Oilers Sunday.
"He looked at me and said he was going to take my (bleep, bleep) head off," Dressler laughed later, reliving his starring performance.
"I told him, 'I hope I didn't hurt you.'"
Dressler could afford to forearm to the jaw sent him to the sidelines in the fourth period. Second-year quarterback Ken Anderson completed 20 of 28 passes for 189 yards.

The Bengals dominated offensive play, running 77 plays for 496 yards while the Oilers ran only 35 plays for only 145 yards.
"When you've never got the ball, this game's pretty frustrating," moaned Oilers Coach Bill Peterson.
"They just took us apart."
"What's the name of the new kid who started?" he asked, referring to Dressler.

"We just couldn't get him stopped."
Dressler, a sometimes starter since the middle of last season and used sparingly in the Bengals last two games, viewed his performance as vindication of the Robinson-Willis trade.
"When you get put into a game because someone else had to leave," Dressler said, ripping a thick layer of tape from his right leg in the Bengals dressing room, "you'd think maybe they—the coaches—think you're second best."
"I had to show them something."

Toledo Whips Miami, 35-21

By GEORGE STRODE
Associated Press Sports Writer
COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Bowling Green's much closer to a whiff of Tangerines and the Mid-American football title and the Falcons didn't even play a conference game Saturday.
"You have to favor Bowling Green. They have only Ohio University left," said Toledo mentor Jack Murphy after his defending champions stunned Miami of Ohio 35-21.
The setback deprived the favored Redskins a share of the conference lead with Bowling Green, Kent State and Western Michigan, which polished off Ohio 34-17 in the other conference game Saturday.
"I think the MAC race looks better for us. We only have one conference game left. The other teams have to fight it out," said Bowling Green Coach Don Nehlen after a 48-7 non-conference romp over Marshall.

Ohio State survived a rash of injuries and a second-half Wisconsin comeback to trim the Badgers 28-20 and remain tied for the Big Ten lead with Michigan and Purdue. The Buckeyes are 6-0 for all games, 4-0 in the conference.
Howard Stevens, who has scored more touchdowns (66) and gained more yardage (4,854) than any college division player in history, scored three times and ran up 253 yards in Louisville's 38-13 romp at Cincinnati.
Stevens' marks, however, will not be recognized since he has played his last two years with the Cardinals, now 6-0. The Bearcats fell to a 2-5 mark.
Dayton quarterback Ken Polke rifled a 51-yard scoring pass play to Larry Nickels to give the Flyers a 14-10 verdict over Virginia Military, extending VMI's losing streak to 18 games.

Ron Jaworski, Youngstown's quarterback, connected on 13 passes for 180 yards and three touchdowns as the Penguins shelled Xavier 47-7.
Ashland ran the best record in Ohio to 8-0-0 with a 20-6 homecoming triumph over Hillsdale, Mich.
In Ohio Conference play, Wittenberg beat Mount Union 27-7 for a 3-0 mark in the Red Division and a likely spot in the first-ever playoffs in that circuit.

In other OC contests, Ohio Wesleyan whipped Marietta 19-8, Muskingum bounced Denison 35-26, Heidelberg beat Wooster 31-21 and Baldwin-Wallace outscored Capital 37-21.
Elsewhere, it was Findlay 27, Wilmington 17; Defiance 20, Anderson 9; Oberlin 42, Chicago 0; Otterbein 42, Allegheny 7; John Carroll 26, Bethany 21; Carnegie-Mellon 18, Case Western Reserve 0; Ohio Northern 14, Bluffton 6; Akron 14, Central Michigan 10, and Thiel 27, Hiram 14.

CHS Harriers Place Second; Liston Qualifies For State

Circleville's cross country team failed to qualify for the State cross country meet but the Tigers' Dick Liston gained a berth with a second place finish in the Class AA District event Saturday at Raymond Memorial golf course.
Liston had a time of 10:30 to place second to Randy Weber of Mt. Gilcard who toured the course in 10:26.

The Tiger team compiled a total of 46 points in Section 1 to finish behind the winning Bexley team with 43 markers.
Mt. Gilcard was third with 102 points.
Grandview captured Section 2 with a total of 52 points to beat Marion River Valley who was second with 55.
Worthington was the winner in Section 1 of the Class AAA division with 44 while Upper Arlington tallied 29 points to take Section 2 of the Class AAA competition.
Caldwell won the Class A division with 56 points.
Liston will compete in the State meet to be held Saturday at the Ohio State University Golf Course.

Wadkins Wins Sahara Golf Tourney

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP) — The rookie beat the old master, but aging Arnold Palmer—mired in one of the most frustrating slumps of his legendary career—has no thoughts at all of calling it quits.
"Hell," snorted the 43-year-old Palmer after losing by one stroke to Lanny Wadkins Sunday in the final round of the Sahara Invitational Golf Tournament, "I'll still be playing when he's retired."
That may be stretching it just a bit, considering that Wadkins is only 22 and fresh out of Wake Forest, which he attended on an Arnold Palmer Scholarship. But Palmer left no doubt that he's still ready and able to challenge the young lions that are moving into a dominant position on the pro tour.
"I just didn't hit the ball quite as good as I should have, quite as good as I could," he said and held his fingers just a fraction of an inch apart. "It's just that far away."

Harold (Champ) Henson scored two touchdowns and gained 122 yards rushing Saturday in Ohio State's 28-20 victory over Wisconsin.
The Teays Valley graduate now has 13 touchdowns, just four off the record of 17 held jointly by Jim Otis and John Brockington. Ohio State has four games remaining and this week hosts Minnesota.

Ohio State rolled up 28 points in the first half and then had to sweat out a 28-20 decision over Wisconsin.
"They gave us a whale of a ball game," said a relieved Woody Hayes after his fourth-ranked Buckeyes had sealed the victory.
The Buckeyes jumped to a quick 21-0 lead and Hayes was asked if he thought his club suffered a psychological letdown because of the early advantage.
"No," said Hayes. "We were marching the ball but we stopped our own drives with fumbles. When you get a rash of fumbles, you have to button up."

George Follmer ponders an afternoon when he won a race and won a car and lost a car and lost a job.
It happened Sunday at Riverside International Raceway when the 36-year-old driver, who already had clinched the Canadian-American sports car title for 1972, capped his year of triumph by winning the Times Grand Prix.
That was the final race in the series where Follmer had taken over driving the Porsche 917-10 for Roger Penske of Philadelphia when Mark Donohue was hurt in July.
Follmer, from Arcadia, Calif., collected $20,950 and also the pace car for his triumph at Riverside.
But Penske had already sold the Porsche to Bobby Rinzier of Atlanta, and the deal included the second racer which Penske's crew had assembled for Donohue when he recovered from his accident injuries.
"Unfortunately," said Penske, "At this point we are not planning to race two cars in the 1973 series. We will build two new Porsche racers but we will race only one and that one will be driven by Mark Donohue."
Before a crowd of 64,200, Follmer jumped into the lead immediately and held it until Donohue took over on the 46th lap of the 201-mile race over the 3.3-mile course.

Nebraska Blanks Cowboys, 34-0

By HERSCHEL NISSENSEN
Associated Press Sports Writer
What has the current Nebraska football team accomplished that the national champions of 1970 and 1971 didn't ... besides losing a game, that is?
The answer is four straight shutouts, the first time a Nebraska team has turned that trick in 35 years.
The latest was Saturday's 34-0 whitewash of Oklahoma State, a club which Coach Bob Devaney called "about as good a football team as we've played." It was the sixth consecutive triumph for the Cornhuskers following an opening-game loss to UCLA, a stretch in which they've outscored the opposition 315-14.
"We did a great job of defending their wishbone," Devaney said after his defensive unit limited the Cowboys to 134 yards on 46 rushes and a mere 71 yards through the air. "And offensively, any time you're able to score 34 points you've done a good job."
As usual, the most impressive of Nebraska's famed defense "Black Shirts" was nose guard Rich Glover, who made 11 tackles and shut down the middle as Oklahoma State managed to invade Nebraska territory only three times.
Meanwhile, sophomore Dave Humm hurled touchdown passes to Johnny Rodgers and Bob Reville and Rodgers galloped 17 yards for another score.

While Nebraska, ranked third nationally, was taking over first place in the Big Eight, the Cornhuskers' arch rival, eighth-ranked Oklahoma, bounced back from its lone setback by walloping Kansas 52-0 and Missouri made it two straight upsets by shading seventh-rated Colorado 20-17 on Greg Hill's 33-yard field goal with six seconds to play.
Top-rated Southern California continued toward its Nov. 18 Pacific-8 showdown with UCLA by defeating stubborn Oregon 18-0 while the ninth-ranked Bruins were beating Washington State 35-20.
The Big Ten, which provides the Rose Bowl opponent for the Pac-8 champion, remained in a three-way deadlock. Fourth-ranked Ohio State held off Wisconsin 24-20, No. 5 Michigan shellacked Minnesota 42-0 and unranked Purdue got by winless Illinois 29-14.
Second-ranked Alabama pulled away from Southern Mississippi in the second half 48-11 while Southeastern Conference rival Louisiana State, rated sixth, was idle. Texas, No. 10, continued its quest for a fifth straight Southwest Conference crown with a 45-0 romp over Rice.

In The Associated Press Second Ten, No. 11 Penn State virtually nailed down another Eastern crown by defeating West Virginia 28-19 despite Kerry Marbury's 100-yard gallop with the opening kickoff and Bernie Gaffa's 341-yard passing show.
Elsewhere, No. 12 Auburn intercepted four of Gary Huff's passes and whipped No. 17 Florida State 27-14 as Terry Henley scored three times: No. 13 Notre Dame outgained Texas Christian 339 yards to 132 and blanked the Horned Frogs 21-0; No. 14 Tennessee eased past Hawaii 34-2 after Conrad Graham intercepted a pass and returned it 25 yards for a touchdown on the game's first scrimmage play.
Iowa State, rated 15th, turned George Amundson and Mike Strachan loose for a 313 victory over Kansas. Amundson passed for 175 yards and three touchdowns and ran for 110 and another score, while soph half-back Strachan gained 184.
Frank Murphy gained 198 yards on pass receptions, including three scoring tosses from Rich Hawn, as Air Force outscored No. 16 Arizona State 39-31. Arkansas' sharpshooting Joe Ferguson hurled the Razorbacks, tied for 18th with West Virginia and Southern Methodist, past No. 2 Texas State 42-16 and Texas Tech sacked SMU quarterback Keith Bobo seven times and upset the Mustangs 17-3.

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP)—Cleveland coach Bill Fitch was quick to credit Lenny Wilkens after the Cavaliers put on their best performance of the season Sunday night to defeat Kansas City-Omaha 115-97 in a National Basketball Association game.

Minnesota Vikings Dump Pack, 27-13

By KEN RAPPOPORT
Associated Press Sports Writer

The Purple Gang has been reincarnated, although Carl Eller believes that it's still a ghost of its former self.

After the Minnesota Vikings demonstrated some of their old-time defensive magic in beating the Green Bay Packers 27-13 Sunday, their ringleader declared:

"We're not back yet ... wherever we've been, we're not back."

The brawny defensive end referred to Minnesota's unimpressive 3-4 record and unimposing last place posture in the National Football Conference's Central Division.

They were destined for better things this year, according to general manager.

"But we haven't been playing well," said Minnesota Coach Bud Grant, whose team has won four straight Central crowns.

No matter where the Purple Gang has been hiding, those tough guys were just as bullish as ever Sunday in pushing around a fairly potent offensive team.

Paul Krause and Wally Hilgenberg each intercepted a Scott Hunter pass and wheeled back for touchdowns and Eller and his bruising mates on that Front Four wall made life miserable for the Packers' gifted quarterback.

"I'd have to call this our best game of the season," said Grant. "Now we've got to play them one at a time. I know that's a cliché, but I think it applies here."

Minnesota's victory spoiled a chance for Green Bay to take over possession of first place in the nervous Central Division race. The Packers, who started the day tied with the Detroit Lions, fell to a 4-3 record and a half-game behind the Lions.

Detroit meets the Dallas Cowboys tonight.

The Cowboys, defending National Football League champions, fell in a game off Washington's pace in the East as a result of the Redskins' 23-16 victory over the New York Giants Sunday.

In the other games, the Miami Dolphins trounced the

Baltimore Colts 23-0; the New York Jets humbled the New England Patriots 34-10; the Cincinnati Bengals clouted the Houston Oilers 30-7; the Pittsburgh Steelers trimmed the Buffalo Bills 28-21; the Oakland Raiders hammered the Los Angeles Rams 45-17; the Kansas City Chiefs defeated the San Diego Chargers 26-14, the Cleveland Browns tripped the Denver Broncos 27-20; the San Francisco 49ers crushed the Atlanta Falcons 49-14; the New Orleans Saints stopped the Philadelphia Eagles 21-3 and the Chicago Bears bombed the St. Louis Cardinals 27-10.

Earl Morrill, a Baltimore Colt castoff, led Miami to a convincing victory over his former teammates as the unbeaten Dolphins won their seventh straight this year. The Dolphins picked up the veteran quarterback from the Colts during the off-season and Morrill hasn't lost a game since filling in for the injured Bob Griese three weeks ago.

Emerson Rooser busted free for three touchdowns in the Jets' runaway over the Pats. Quarterback Joe Namath set up Rooser's jumps of 5, 12 and 15 yards with intelligent passing.

Doug Dressler rushed for 110 yards—more than half his total last year—and scored a touchdown in Cincinnati's romp. Franco Harris ran for two TDs and scored another on a pass from Terry Bradshaw to lead Pittsburgh over Buffalo.

Oakland cashed in a fumbled opening kickoff and three pass interceptions in scoring four first-half touchdowns enroute to an easy triumph over Los Angeles. The Raiders' victory kept them a half-game in front of Kansas City in the AFC West.

Jan Stenerud booted four field goals as Kansas City scored 23 points in the second half for a comeback triumph over San Diego.

Cleveland stopped Denver as quarterback Mike Phipps plunged over from the one-yard-line with 2:50 left in the game. Phipps had earlier thrown two TD passes.

Bengals Crush Oilers, 30-7

CINCINNATI (AP) — Husky Doug Dressler lowered his head and ripped his forearm into Houston linebacker Richard Lewis.

Lewis flew backward with Dressler stomping out of bounds after an 11-yard gain in the third period of Cincinnati's 30-7 National Football League victory over the Oilers Sunday.

"He looked at me and said he was going to take my (bleep, bleep) head off," Dressler laughed later, reliving his startling performance.

"I told him, 'I hope I didn't hurt you.'"

Dressler could afford to laugh. A part-time back one week ago, he moved into starting duties after a trade sent Bengals running backs Fred Willis and Paul Robinson to the Oilers last week.

Dressler, a 6-foot-1, 190-pound third-year man out of Chico State College of California, responded Sunday with 110 yards in 19 carries and got the Bengals' opening touchdown—by far his best rushing day as a pro.

Fancy-stepping Essex Johnson complemented that effort with 103 yards in 16 carries, including a 17-yard touchdown gallop before a well-placed forearm to the jaw sent him to the sidelines in the fourth period. Second-year quarterback Ken Anderson completed 20 of 28 passes for 189 yards.

The Bengals dominated offensive play, running 77 plays for 496 yards while the Oilers ran only 35 plays for only 145 yards.

"When you've never got the ball, this game's pretty frustrating," moaned Oilers Coach Bill Peterson.

"They just took us apart."

"What's the name of the new kid who started?" he asked, referring to Dressler.

"We just couldn't get him stopped."

Dressler, a sometimes starter since the middle of last season and used sparingly in the Bengals last two games, viewed his performance as vindication of the Robinson-Willis trade.

"When you get put into a game because someone else had to leave," Dressler said, ripping a thick layer of tape from his right leg in the Bengals dressing room, "you'd think maybe they—the coaches—think you're second best."

"I had to show them something."

Toledo Whips Miami, 35-21

By GEORGE STRODE
Associated Press Sports Writer

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Bowling Green's much closer to a whiff of Tangerines and the Mid-American football title and the Falcons didn't even play a conference game Saturday.

"You have to favor Bowling Green. They have only Ohio University left," said Toledo mentor Jack Murphy after his defending champions stunned Miami of Ohio 35-21.

The setback deprived the favored Redskins a share of the conference lead with Bowling Green, Kent State and Western Michigan, which polished off Ohio 34-17 in the other conference game Saturday.

"I think the MAC race looks better for us. We only have one conference game left. The other teams have to fight it out," said Bowling Green Coach Don Nehlen after a 45-7 non-conference romp over Marshall.

Ohio State survived a rash of injuries and a second-half Wisconsin comeback to trim the Badgers 28-20 and remain tied for the Big Ten lead with Michigan and Purdue. The Buckeyes are 6-0 for all games, 4-0 in the conference.

Howard Stevens, who has scored more touchdowns (66) and gained more yardage (4,854) than any college division player in history, scored three times and ran up 253 yards in Louisville's 38-13 romp at Cincinnati.

Stevens' marks, however, will not be recognized since he has played his last two years with the Cardinals, now 6-0. The Bearcats fell to a 2-5 mark.

Dayton quarterback Ken Polke rifled a 51-yard scoring pass play to Larry Nickels to give the Flyers a 14-10 verdict over Virginia Military, extending VMI's losing streak to 18 games.

Ron Jaworski, Youngstown's quarterback, connected on 13 passes for 180 yards and three touchdowns as the Penguins shelled Xavier 47-7.

Ashland ran the best record in Ohio to 8-0 with a 20-6 homecoming triumph over Hillsdale, Mich.

In Ohio Conference play, Wittenberg beat Mount Union 27-7 for a 3-0 mark in the Red Division and a likely spot in the first-ever playoffs in that circuit.

In other OC contests, Ohio Wesleyan whipped Marietta 19-8. Muskingum bounced Denison 35-26. Heidelberg beat Wooster 31-21 and Baldwin-Wallace outscored Capital 37-21.

Elsewhere, it was Findlay 27, Wilmington 17; Defiance 20, Anderson 9; Oberlin 42, Chicago 0; Otterbein 42, Allegheny 7; John Carroll 26, Bethany 21; Carnegie-Mellon 18, Case Western Reserve 0; Ohio Northern 14, Bluffton 6; Akron 14, Central Michigan 10, and Thiel 27, Hiram 14.

CHS Harriers Place Second; Liston Qualifies For State

Circleville's cross country team failed to qualify for the State cross country meet but the Tigers' Dick Liston gained a berth with a second place finish in the Class AA District event Saturday at Raymond Memorial golf course.

Liston had a time of 10:30 to place second to Randy Weber of Mt. Gilead who toured the course in 10:26.

The Tiger team compiled a total of 46 points in Section 1 to finish behind the winning Bexley team with 43 markers. Mt. Gilead was third with 102 points.

Grandview captured Section 2 with a total of 52 points to beat Marion River Valley who was second with 55.

Worthington was the winner in Section 1 of the Class AAA division with 44 while Upper Arlington tallied 29 points to take Section 2 of the Class AAA competition.

Caldwell won the Class A division with 56 points.

Liston will compete in the State meet to be held Saturday at the Ohio State University Golf Course.

Big Ten Contests Exciting

By JOE MOOSHIL
Associated Press Sports Writer

Only Michigan was unthreatened among Big Ten leaders last week. For a moment, Illinois threatened Purdue and Wisconsin was within a touchdown of a possible tie against Ohio State.

Michigan's mighty Wolverines, with Ed Shuttlesworth scoring four touchdowns on short yardage, battered Minnesota 42-0 to retain the Little Brown Jug, a trophy dating back to 1903.

Illinois was knocking on the door in the fourth quarter but finally yielded to Purdue 20-14 after Carl Capria intercepted a Mike Wells pass to halt the Illinois drive.

"I would have bet my life in the fourth quarter that we would win the game 21-20," said Illinois Coach Bob Blackman. "This team deserves a better fate."

Harold (Champ) Henson scored two touchdowns and gained 122 yards rushing Saturday in Ohio State's 28-20 victory over Wisconsin.

CHS Reserves Lose To Trace

Fumbles and penalties were the downfall of the Circleville reserve gridderers as they dropped a 13-7 decision to Miami Trace Saturday on the Panthers' turf.

Trace turned two Tiger fumbles into touchdowns and a third fumble by the Red and Black killed a scoring drive on the Panthers' 7-yard line.

Two drives by the Tigers in the second half were also stopped by crucial penalties.

Pat McNaughton tallied on a 4-yard run and Phil Roll kicked the conversion to account for the Tiger points in the second quarter.

The Trace scores came on runs of 2 and 4 yards.

CHAMP BATTLING FOR LIFE—Ezzard Charles, 51, a former world boxing champion sits in a wheelchair at his Chicago home, helpless and speechless. With him are his wife, Gladys, and their 18-year-old son, Ezzard II. Charles has been fighting the battle for his life for the past six years. He was stricken in February, 1966, with amyotrophic lateral sclerosis.

SPORTS Highlights

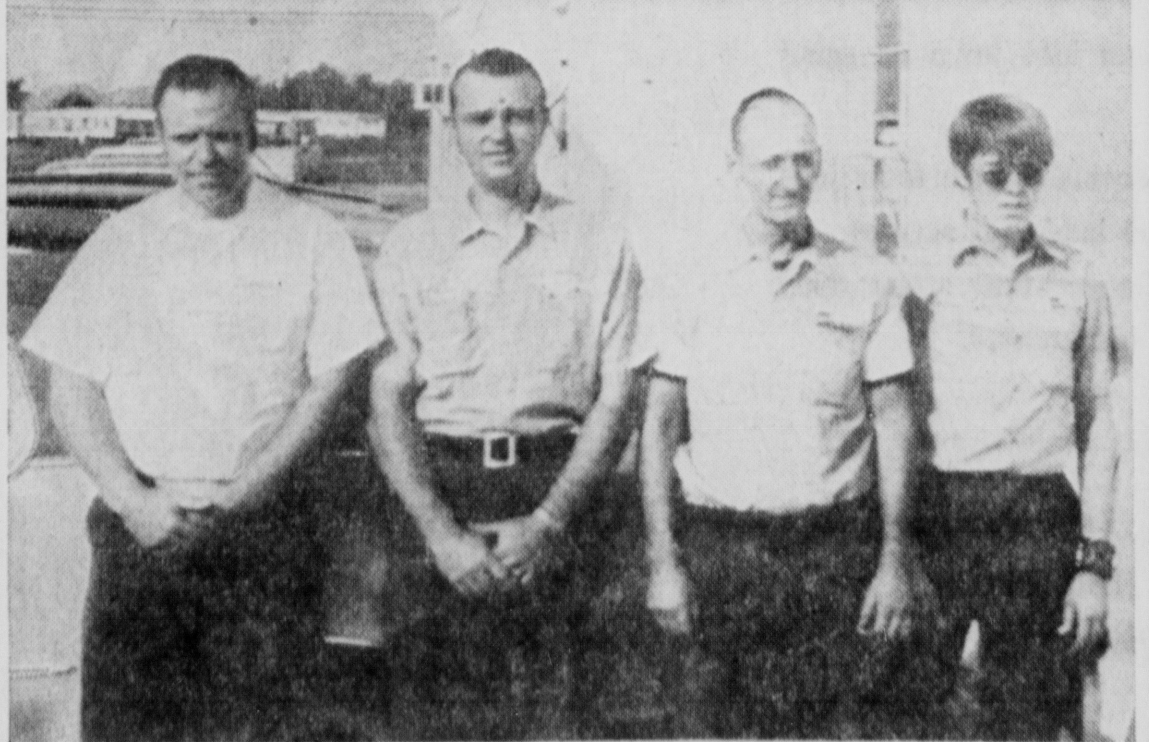

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Jim Chones, the New York Nets' million-dollar rookie, is stepping toward consistency and that could be bad news for the rest of the American Basketball Association.
Chones connected for 20 points and 17 rebounds Sunday night as the Nets bounced from behind for a 100-98 ABA victory over the Dallas Chaps.
In other ABA games on Sunday, Carolina took Memphis 110-105 and Indiana downed San Diego 112-98.
In the ABA Saturday, it was Kentucky 106, New York 82; Carolina 141, Virginia 109; Indiana 119, Denver 106 and Utah 132, San Diego 120.

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The Detroit Pistons lost one for Earl Lloyd ... and won one for Ray Scot.
Lloyd lost his job as coach of the National Basketball Association team after dropping a 130-118 decision to Houston over the weekend, the club's fifth setback in seven starts.
Scott, a former assistant coach elevated to the head spot, notched his first victory on Sunday night when the Pistons stopped the Portland Trail Blazers 119-111.
In the other NBA games Sunday night, the Cleveland Cavaliers stopped the Kansas City-Omaha Kings 115-97; the Chicago Bulls nipped the Seattle SuperSonics 95-94 and the Los Angeles Lakers defeated the Phoenix Suns 133-123.
Saturday night's NBA results: New York 94, Baltimore 90; Kansas City-Omaha 113, Buffalo 102; Milwaukee 96, Philadelphia 92; and Golden State 122, Atlanta 107.

FLORENCE, Ky. (AP)—Latonia Race Course has recorded its top day of the current quarter horse meet from the standpoint of attendance and mutual handle.
A crowd of 1,811 wagered $75,789 Sunday for the best figures.
Dnia Mite took the featured ninth race by a nose and returned $6, $3.40 and $2.80. At-tayae placed for $8.20 and $3.90, and Panama Bar showed for $3.

Top College Gridder Eyes Shot At Pros

CINCINNATI (AP) — Ruged little Howard Stevens, who boasts more touchdowns and rushing yardage than any player in NCAA history, asks for just a shot at making a professional football team.

"I just would like an opportunity to try to play in the pros," the nation's collegiate scoring leader says. "Whether I make it or not is something else."

Blanton Collier, scout for the National Football League's Cleveland Browns, watched Stevens as he gained 258 yards and scored three touchdowns in pacing the undefeated Louisville Cardinals over Cincinnati 38-13 Saturday.

Collier labeled the 5-foot-5, 165-pound senior "a remarkable football player." Collier said "he has an excellent chance" of becoming a pro football player, probably as a kickoff or punt return specialist.

Louisville Coach Lee Corso called Stevens "the greatest in the country" and Cincinnati Coach Ray Callahan said, "He's just so hard to get hold of."

Weaving through Cincinnati's defense and bouncing off would-be tacklers, Stevens hiked his career touchdown total to 66 to top the mark of 64 by Dale Mills of Northern Missouri and Leo Lewis of Lincoln (Mo.).

Top 30 Grid Team Results Are Compiled

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Here's how the top-ranked teams in The Associated Press' high school football poll fared in weekend action:

Sabres, Canadiens Remain Unbeaten

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
It's 10 games down and 63 to go for Buffalo's stunning Sabres—still unbeaten in this National Hockey League season.

The Sabres and sensational Rick Martin continued to sock it to their bigger brothers over the weekend and stayed on top of first place Montreal—rarified atmosphere for the 3-year-old franchise.

Martin scored his 12th and 13th goals of the young season Sunday night as the Sabres whipped Minnesota 2-1 and stayed just two points back of first place Montreal.

The Canadiens edged Detroit 2-1 and also remained unbeaten.

Jim Chones, the New York Nets' million-dollar rookie, is stepping toward consistency and that could be bad news for the rest of the American Basketball Association.

Chones connected for 20 points and 17 rebounds Sunday night as the Nets bounced from behind for a 100-98 ABA victory over the Dallas Chaps.

In other ABA games on Sunday, Carolina took Memphis 110-105 and Indiana downed San Diego 112-98.

In the ABA Saturday, it was Kentucky 106, New York 82; Carolina 141, Virginia 109; Indiana 119, Denver 106 and Utah 132, San Diego 120.

The Detroit Pistons lost one for Earl Lloyd ... and won one for Ray Scott.

Lloyd lost his job as coach of the National Basketball Association team after dropping a 130-118 decision to Houston over the weekend, the club's fifth setback in seven starts.

Scott, a former assistant coach elevated to the head spot, notched his first victory on Sunday night when the Pistons stopped the Portland Trail Blazers 119-111.

In the other NBA games Sunday night, the Cleveland Cavaliers stopped the Kansas City-Omaha Kings 115-97; the Chicago Bulls nipped the Seattle SuperSonics 95-94 and the Los Angeles Lakers defeated the Phoenix Suns 133-123.

Saturday night's NBA results: New York 94, Baltimore 90; Kansas City-Omaha 113, Buffalo 102; Milwaukee 96, Philadelphia 92; and Golden State 122, Atlanta 107.

Top College Gridder Eyes Shot At Pros

CINCINNATI (AP) — Ruggered little Howard Stevens, who boasts more touchdowns and rushing yardage than any player in NCAA history, asks for just a shot at making a professional football team.

"I just would like an opportunity to try to play in the pros," the nation's collegiate scoring leader says. "Whether I make it or not is something else."

Blanton Collier, scout for the National Football League's Cleveland Browns, watched Stevens as he gained 258 yards and scored three touchdowns in pacing the undefeated Louisville Cardinals over Cincinnati 38-13 Saturday.

Collier labeled the 5-foot-5, 165-pound senior "a remarkable football player." Collier said "he has an excellent chance" of becoming a pro football player, probably as a kickoff or punt return specialist.

Louisville Coach Lee Corso called Stevens "the greatest in the country" and Cincinnati Coach Ray Callahan said, "He's just so hard to get hold of."

Weaving through Cincinnati's defense and bouncing off would-be tacklers, Stevens hiked his career touchdown total to 66 to top the mark of 64 by Dale Mills of Northern Missouri and Leo Lewis of Lincoln (Mo.).

Due to retirement, redistricting, primary-election defeats and the quest for other office, incumbents will not be on the ballot in 57 districts on Nov. 7. In three districts, pairs of incumbent are opponents.

—The voting habits of young people in a national election have not been tested fully; the constitutional amendment lowering the voting age to 18 was not in effect in 1968. —The emotional reaction to pending settlement of the war in Indochina cannot be measured.

In the closing weeks of the campaign, Democrats have been without the services of one of their most able campaigners, Majority Leader Hale Boggs of Louisiana was lost on a plane trip to Alaska to campaign for a colleague. His speaking engagements for other Democrats were booked right up to Nov. 7.

Redistricting is the basis for victory predictions by both political parties in many areas.

In Iowa, which lost one seat because of reapportionment, incumbents Neal Smith, Democrat, and John Kyl, Republican, are running in the same district. Republicans claim Kyl has the edge.

A similar situation exists in Texas, where incumbents Graham Purcell, Democrat, and Robert Price, Republican, are running in the 13th District.

In Wisconsin, incumbents David Obey, Democrat, and Alvin O'Konski, Republican, are paired against each other because of redistricting.

McGovern Sets Another Stop At Cincinnati

CINCINNATI (AP) — U.S. Sen. George S. McGovern, Democratic presidential nominee, will speak at a rally at the University of Cincinnati Thursday, the chairman of Hamilton County Citizens for McGovern says.

Zane Miller, also a UC professor, said Sunday that McGovern will address the rally at 1 p.m.

Miller said his group is "honored and pleased" that McGovern has chosen Cincinnati for "possibly his last stop in Ohio" before the Nov. 7 election.

Indiana Governor Rebuts Claims By Demo Hopeful

INDIANAPOLIS (AP) — Gov. Edgar D. Whitcomb, who has stayed in the shadows of this gubernatorial campaign, indicates he will be more vocal in the next week about Democratic criticism of his administration. Contacted at his Seymour home by The Associated Press Sunday night, Whitcomb said he "will speak out in regard to this administration."

Whitcomb's Republican administration has been a favorite target of former Gov. Matthew E. Welsh, the Democratic candidate for governor in the Nov. 7 election.

The governor issued a statement Saturday condemning a Welsh charge that the present administration has stalled completion of Indiana's segment of Interstate 275. In his strongest public response to such charges, Whitcomb accused Welsh of "desperation efforts to confuse voters about the state of Indiana's government." He said Welsh has made "clumsy efforts to smear my administration" and chided the Democrat for "still living in 1964."

Welsh was governor from 1961-65. His statement came at a joint news conference with Ohio Gov. John Gilligan Friday at Cincinnati. Peggy Campbell, Whitcomb's publicity aide, said the governor decided to issue his statement "because this was just too much."

Whitcomb said Sunday night his response was not out of character, noting "I've done this on two or three occasions. "But he (Welsh) grossly misstated the facts," he added. "It was something that needed to be said."

Whitcomb's rebuttal was that construction was proceeding on the $8 million I-275 bridge over the Ohio River at Lawrenceburg, Ind., in cooperation with Kentucky.

"Also we have committed another $6 million for construction of the highway itself in Indiana and this project is now under contract," the statement said. "Either Matt Welsh doesn't know any of this or he is trying to delude Hoosier voters further."

Whitcomb said Sunday night, "I like to keep the record straight."

Asked why he chose such strong language, Whitcomb said, "It's just exactly what he (Welsh) is doing. If he were asking a statement of fact, okay, but his entire program is one of confusing the voters in this election."

Whitcomb also said Welsh attacks on present management of license branches "are so much nonsense."

Pickaway-Ross Vocational School Bonds Sold To Firm

A bid of 5 per cent interest on school improvement bonds to build the Pickaway-Ross Joint Vocational School has been accepted by the PRJVS board.

The $2.3 million in bonds were sold to McDonald and Company of Cleveland when that bid was chosen over six others received from Tennessee, Chicago, Columbus and other areas.

McDonald and Company agreed to purchase the bonds at 5 per cent interest and offered an additional premium of $27,291 to be credited to the school.

A report from the architects revealed that the building will be situated on the front portion of the school site on the Crouse Chapel Road.

Progress was reported in developing guidance programs. Guidance Director Raymond Pack announced that he had been working with counselors of the various school districts and planned training seminars for guidance personnel and instruction in utilizing the General Aptitude Test battery. These sessions are scheduled Dec. 5, 6 and 7 and Jan. 1.

Fourteen persons were recommended for positions on the General-Advisory Committee. The committee will consist of a cross-section of the vocational district citizens appointed by this board to help plan the vocational program as a whole.

In the future, special craft committees — such as horticulture, cosmetology, business, etc. — will be organized to assist in individual curriculum planning.

Board member Paul W. Gerhardt was chosen as delegate to the Ohio School Boards Assn. meeting in November in Columbus. The board also gave Superintendent Hydel authority to apply for government surplus equipment for the school.

Investigate Blaze In Cincy Office

CINCINNATI (AP) — An apartment building, struck by a two-alarm fire Saturday night, housed an office of a black power group, a Cincinnati Fire Department official says.

The official said Sunday the possibility of a link between the cause of the fire and location of the office was being explored.

The blaze, which did $35,000 damage and forced evacuation of about 30 residents, was being investigated by the fire department's arson squad.

SLOW DOWN YOUR "CUSTOMER TURNOVER"

No alert merchant will question that his store traffic must be regenerated constantly if his business is to survive and prosper. The loyalty of old customers must be maintained and strengthened continuously, and new customers must be obtained in ever-increasing numbers. Store traffic must undergo a constant build-up process.

The very unsteadiness of your "steady customers" is an unchallengeable reason for CONSISTENT ADVERTISING IN THE HERALD to acquaint the community with your store, its services, its merchandise, its prices and the shopping advantages and conveniences it offers.

And the RIGHT KIND of advertising to regenerate store traffic constantly . . . to hold present customers . . . to obtain more new customers . . . AND MOVE MORE MERCHANDISE . . . is HERALD ADVERTISING!

The Harvard School of Business Bureau of Statistics Reports

THIS IS WHAT HAPPENS TO EVERY 100 PEOPLE EVERY YEAR . . . IN ANY TOWN!

- 16 to 18 people move away or die.
- 17 to 19 new people move into town or come of buying age.
- 26 to 29 of every 100 persons change their jobs . . . move up or down the ladder of success . . . and experience other changes that affect their buying habits and store preferences.

These facts prove

YOUR STEADY CUSTOMERS ARE MIGHTY UPSETTING WITHOUT THE UPSETTING INFLUENCE OF INTENSIVE COMPETITION.

Be Wise . . . Invest in Herald Advertising . . . It Pays!

No alert merchant will question that his store traffic must be regenerated constantly if his business is to survive and prosper. The loyalty of old customers must be maintained and strengthened continuously, and new customers must be obtained in ever-increasing numbers. Store traffic must undergo a constant build-up process.

The very unsteadiness of your "steady customers" is an unchallengeable reason for CONSISTENT ADVERTISING IN THE HERALD to acquaint the community with your store, its services, its merchandise, its prices and the shopping advantages and conveniences it offers.

And the RIGHT KIND of advertising to regenerate store traffic constantly . . . to hold present customers . . . to obtain more new customers . . . AND MOVE MORE MERCHANDISE . . . is HERALD ADVERTISING!

The Harvard School of Business Bureau of Statistics Reports

THIS IS WHAT HAPPENS TO EVERY 100 PEOPLE EVERY YEAR . . . IN ANY TOWN!

- 16 to 18 people move away or die.
- 17 to 19 new people move into town or come of buying age.
- 26 to 29 of every 100 persons change their jobs . . . move up or down the ladder of success . . . and experience other changes that affect their buying habits and store preferences.

These facts prove

YOUR STEADY CUSTOMERS ARE MIGHTY UPSETTING WITHOUT THE UPSETTING INFLUENCE OF INTENSIVE COMPETITION.

Be Wise . . . Invest in Herald Advertising . . . It Pays!
